Unit description

This unit involves attendance at clinical placements and internships arranged by Macquarie Law School. There are a number of clinical placement opportunities in the social justice, court and community legal service sector. Placements are advertised via email by Arts PACE and on the Law School website, and entry to this unit is by application. S1 applications open in November of the previous year. S2 applications open in week 4 s1.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Analyse and critique the social, political, ethical and legal issues involved in public provision of legal services in specific contexts.

ULO2: Contrast and analyse the connection and tension between law and procedure on the one hand, and the realities of legal practice on the other

ULO3: Identify the personal and professional demands on, and expectations of, a lawyer in practice

ULO4: Apply the interpersonal skills necessary in legal practice

ULO5: Engage in personal reflection demonstrating self awareness in relation to your capacity to carry out legal work in a professional environment
