Unit description

International Commercial Law examines contract law as it applies in an international context, addressing, in particular; the international sale of goods; Incoterms, contracts of sale under the Vienna Sales Convention; contracts for carriage of goods by sea, air and land; and bills of exchange, marine insurance and letters of credit in international trade. This unit incorporates analyses of different legal systems, an introduction to conflicts of law as well as political contexts underpinning the operation of this body of law. International commercial arbitration is highlighted as the key mode of dispute settlement for international contractual disputes.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Demonstrate comprehension of the regulatory framework and standards that govern International Sales of Goods.

ULO2: Understand the legal aspects of international commercial transactions, and identify legal issues, problems and risk factors that a business entity may encounter in operating cross-border transactions.

ULO3: Demonstrate a sophisticated knowledge and understanding of relevant laws and conventions that influence international commercial transactions by sea and air

ULO4: Explain the importance of risk in international commercial transactions and demonstrate a working knowledge of international insurance process and procedures.

ULO5: Analyse hypothetical international legal problem scenarios via constructing and defending arguments in a well-structured, reasoned, coherent and logical manner.

ULO6: Demonstrate the ability to independently research contentious and timely issues in international commercial law.

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Assessment details are no longer provided here as a result of changes due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Students should consult iLearn for revised unit information.

Find out more about the Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) and potential impacts on staff and students

General Assessment Information

Further information about the assessment criteria for each task will be forthcoming throughout the semester.

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests (including the final hypothetical problem test).

Word limits will be strictly applied and work above the word limit will not be marked.

All assessments in the unit are to be submitted electronically. Plagiarism detection software is used in this unit.

Moderation

Detailed marking guidelines will be made available on iLearn. Assessments for Fail grade students will be double marked.

Formal requirements for both written assignments (research proposal and research essay)

The following requirements as to presentation of papers must be complied with:

- All assessments should be the independent work of the student. Assignments are not group work or exercises.
- Both assignments must be typed with 12 point font in the text and 10 point font in footnotes.
- The word limit must be strictly maintained. The word limit does not include the footnotes, although footnotes must not include any substantive content. The actual word length of your assignment must be stated on the cover sheet.
- Footnotes and other referencing must be consistent with the Australian Guide to Legal Citations, which can be downloaded at <http://www.law.unimelb.edu.au/mulr>
- Feedback prior to census date will be provided via the early feedback quiz.

Delivery and Resources

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Any references to on-campus delivery below may no longer be relevant due to COVID-19.

Please check here for updated delivery information: https://ask.mq.edu.au/account/pub/display/unit_status

This course will be delivered via weekly lectures (which are recorded and available on iLearn for external/infrequent attendance students). Tutorial questions (other than the Week 1 introductory tutorial) are based on the preceding week's lecture and readings.
