Unit description

This unit provides an off-campus, work-integrated learning experience in a health-related context. Placements may be undertaken in a range of areas (such as health policy, planning, promotion, research, service development, advocacy, and education) and across a range of sectors (such as government, non-profit, community-based, industry, and professional organisations). Students may complete an organisational project during their placement, such as researching and writing a report on a specific issue, or are involved in the delivery of service provision. As far as possible, placements are arranged in accordance with each student's background, skills, experience, professional and academic interests, and career aspirations.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Plan, negotiate and produce a project management plan.

ULO2: Gather, organise, analyse and synthesise the background information.

ULO3: Distinguish and apply appropriate communication modes, verbal and written for key stakeholders.

ULO4: Judge and implement appropriate personal contribution to workplace teamwork.

ULO5: Generate and monitor self management plan in relation to e.g. time management, problem solving, communication with supervisor.

ULO6: Critique, review and reflect on the process of the placement, the health or community issue and the student learning experience.

ULO7: Review career and study wishes and options.
