Unit description

This full year thesis unit provides postgraduate students in Macquarie Law School the opportunity to complete a 20,000 word thesis under the supervision of a Macquarie Law School staff member. This unit is typically taken by students who intend to pursue Higher Degree Research. Students interested in completing a research project should contact the Director of Postgraduate coursework at the earliest opportunity to discuss their proposed topic and identify a supervisor.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Independently plan an advanced legal research project and present the findings of research in diverse ways to academic, legal and non-legal audiences.

ULO2: Identify and integrate ethical research practices in the planning, execution and reporting of legal research projects.

ULO3: Work independently, take initiative and be adaptable to diverse and changing environments

ULO4: Critically analyse complex legal problems by identifying, researching, evaluating and synthesising relevant factual, legal and policy issues

Assessment Tasks

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

Assessment details are no longer provided here as a result of changes due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

Students should consult iLearn for revised unit information.
