Unit description This unit offers a flexible program of postgraduate study for educational studies students. The unit will generally be developed as a guided reading unit in which students will work with an academic supervisor to produce a number of assessable tasks relevant to a field of theory, policy, or practice. The unit offers students an opportunity to further develop their critical thinking and research skills, as well as knowledge of their chosen topic.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- ULO1: identify an issue that is central to some aspect of educational theory, policy or practice;
- ULO2: explore the academic and professional literatures relating the selected issue;
- ULO3: organise, analyse and synthesise the available research and scholarship so as to describe what is known about the issue;
- ULO4: adopt, an evidence based position in relation to the issue;
- ULO5: effectively communicate these things to academic and professional audiences.
