Unit description

This unit, part 1 of the strategic business leader series, provides knowledge about governance within an organisation in the broad context of the agency relationship. It focuses on the respective roles and responsibilities of directors and officers to organisational stakeholders and of accountancy and auditing as a support and control functions. The topics addressed include internal review, control and feedback, compliance issues relating to decision-making and the decision support function as well as risk controls. In addition, the unit critically examines professional ethical issues, ethical frameworks and professional values as applied in the context of the accountants' duties in senior consultancy or advisory capacities and as a guide to appropriate professional behaviour and conduct in a variety of situations.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Critically analyse the role of governance, risks and ethics in accounting.

ULO2: Evaluate the effectiveness of the governance and agency system in an organisational context.

ULO3: Analyse the professional accountant's role in internal control, review and compliance.

ULO4: Apply responsible risk management onto the organisation by identifying, assessing, controlling and mitigating risk.

ULO5: Apply professional values and judgements through an ethical framework that is in the best interests of society and the accounting profession.

General Assessment Information

Late assessment (for the Written Assignment) must also be submitted through Turnitin. No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 20% penalty). Late submissions will not be accepted after solutions have been discussed and/or made available. This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Assessed coursework	20%	No	Throughout
Written Assignment	20%	No	See iLearn
Final Exam	60%	No	See iLearn

Assessed coursework

Assessment Type ¹: Participatory task

Indicative Time on Task ²: 49 hours

Due: Throughout

Weighting: 20%

Homework exercises form a critical part in the study process, as they serve to reinforce concepts that are covered in class or online. Students will be required to attend seminars with their weekly homework. The teaching staff will check that these are satisfactorily attempted. The teaching staff will assess weekly homework on six (6) occasions without prior notice. Marks are awarded for the original effort, completeness and evidence that corrections are made as appropriate. The homework component will be worth 15%, with each assessed submission counting for 2.5%. The remaining 5% will be based on the quality and frequency of the student's seminar participation. Students should be prepared to engage constructively in open discussions on relevant topical issues.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically analyse the role of governance, risks and ethics in accounting.
- Evaluate the effectiveness of the governance and agency system in an organisational context.
- Analyse the professional accountant's role in internal control, review and compliance.
- Apply responsible risk management onto the organisation by identifying, assessing, controlling and mitigating risk.
- Apply professional values and judgements through an ethical framework that is in the best interests of society and the accounting profession.

Written Assignment

Assessment Type ¹: Case study/analysis

Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: See iLearn

Weighting: 20%

The purpose of this assignment is to allow students to put governance and risk concepts into practice in a real life setting and allow students to demonstrate their knowledge on a group and individual basis. The assignment should help students reflect on their learning and link concepts learned in the unit to professional practice. In addition to a written assignment of approximately 1 800 words (10%), there is a group-based presentation (10%) based on the assignment in which students are marked individually. This is a formative assessment designed to prepare students for the final exam.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically analyse the role of governance, risks and ethics in accounting.
- Evaluate the effectiveness of the governance and agency system in an organisational context.
- Analyse the professional accountant's role in internal control, review and compliance.
- Apply responsible risk management onto the organisation by identifying, assessing, controlling and mitigating risk.

Final Exam

Assessment Type ¹: Examination

Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: See iLearn

Weighting: 60%

A two hours online examination will be held during the University examination period. The final exam is a summative assessment designed to let students demonstrate the knowledge and skills they have attained in the previous three assessments.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically analyse the role of governance, risks and ethics in accounting.
- Evaluate the effectiveness of the governance and agency system in an organisational context.
- Analyse the professional accountant's role in internal control, review and compliance.
- Apply responsible risk management onto the organisation by identifying, assessing, controlling and mitigating risk.
- Apply professional values and judgements through an ethical framework that is in the best interests of society and the accounting profession.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Required Text:	Students are required to refer to the most recent Approved Workbook and Practice and Revision Kit for Strategic Business Leader, published by BPP Learning Media.
Unit Web Page:	Students are required to access a computer and the internet at various times in completing this unit, to download course material available on the learning management system (iLearn) and to complete assessment tasks.

Technology Used and Required:	Please refer to iLearn.
Delivery Format and Other Details:	Classes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This unit includes 13 weekly seminars and a number of activities as detailed in this unit guide. • The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/ • Seminar attendance for this unit is compulsory. • Students are required to get involved in seminar discussion. Seminars may be offered either face-to-face or online via Zoom (refer to eStudent for class availability). However, please do not attend face-to-face tutorials if you feel unwell. Instead, please attend the online alternative, making yourself known to the seminar leader.
