Unit description

This unit discusses the major traditional areas of taxation and public expenditure as well as emerging issues relating to public economics in a globalised world economy. Topics may include: taxation; public expenditure; public sector pricing; benefit-cost analysis; fiscal federalism; along with entirely new areas of research and inquiry that have recently emerged.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Examine critical issues and processes evolving in the economics of the public sector.

ULO2: Review changing local and global government intervention issues, structures and policies.

ULO3: Explain the working of the public policy issues in the wider democratic process.

ULO4: Analyse the requirements and roles of the public sector in a decentralised market economy.

ULO5: Evaluate the necessity and effects of government fiscal decisions.

General Assessment Information

No extensions on within-session assessment tasks or the final examination will be granted. Students who have not submitted the task prior to the due date will be awarded a mark of 0 for the task, except for cases in which a formal application for Special Consideration is made (via <http://www.ask.mq.edu.au>) and approved.

During Quiz weeks (Weeks 4, 8, and 12), Quizzes will be released on iLearn at 9 am on Monday and will close at 5 pm the following Sunday.

The Essay will be available on iLearn in week 3 and will be due by 3 pm on Friday of Week 8.

Delivery and Resources

Delivery and Resources

Prescribed textbook

Students are recommended to purchase the following textbook:

- Gruber, J, (2020) Public Finance and Public Policy (6th edition IE), Macmillan Higher Education.

The text is available for purchase from Booktopia/Co-op by clicking here.

Additional weekly readings and resources will be made available on the unit iLearn site during the session.

Technology used and required

The unit uses the learning management system (iLearn) that can be accessed via iLearn.mq.edu.au.

The iLearn site is also used to post important notices. You should check this regularly. The iLearn web page has the facility to allow peer to peer discussion and also allows students to put questions the teaching staff.

Zoom will be used for all remote consultation sessions. More information about accessing your MQ student Zoom account can be found here

Learning and teaching activities

Students are expected to attend the weekly three-hour class. These classes will consist of a mix of lecture material, tutorial questions and class discussions. It is suggested that lecture slides and/or any readings be read in advance.
