Unit description This unit provides students with contemporary knowledge and skills concerning the effective management of people at work. The unit reviews the key systems required for organisations to effectively manage their people in the context of their overall business strategy and the allied managerial skills required for successful implementation. Students learn what the options are for recruitment, selection, development, performance management, reward systems and other fundamental aspects of managing people and the key challenges facing organisations. A particular focus of this unit is the requirement for students to critically evaluate real organisational practices against contemporary theory as well as long established principles.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- ULO1: Evaluate recent developments and contemporary issues in managing people at work.
- ULO2: Defend the importance of thinking strategically about HRM from different theoretical perspectives and the implications for the roles of HR professionals.
- ULO3: Critically analyse HR policies and practices against contemporary theory and established principles.

ULO4: Design HR strategies in key areas of practice that support the creation of value and competitive advantage while also promoting employee wellbeing and decent work.

ULO5: Prepare a critically appraised review of a topic.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessments must also be submitted through Turnitin. No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 20% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 40% penalty). Late submissions will be accepted up to 96 hours after the due date and time.

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Case Studies	10%	No	Weeks 4, 6, 7 & 8
Individual Essay	30%	No	Week 6
Group Presentation	20%	No	Weeks 9-13
Literature Review	40%	No	Week 13

Case Studies

Assessment Type ¹: Case study/analysis

Indicative Time on Task ²: 10 hours

Due: Weeks 4, 6, 7 & 8

Weighting: 10%

A written de-briefing of each Case Study allows students to demonstrate their understanding and critical evaluation of key contemporary issues for HRM management and their potential contribution to the creation of value, competitive advantage and employee well-being. Case Studies are de-briefed in Seminars 4, 5, 8 and 9.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Evaluate recent developments and contemporary issues in managing people at work.
- Defend the importance of thinking strategically about HRM from different theoretical perspectives and the implications for the roles of HR professionals.
- Critically analyse HR policies and practices against contemporary theory and established principles.

Individual Essay

Assessment Type ¹: Essay

Indicative Time on Task ²: 15 hours

Due: Week 6

Weighting: 30%

This individually written essay allows students to critically analyse policies and practices for managing people at work using the lens of current concepts and theories on Managing People. The essay aims at assisting students in developing and demonstrating postgraduate level research skills including critical analysis and academic writing. The length of the essay should be 1,500 words (maximum).

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Evaluate recent developments and contemporary issues in managing people at work.
- Defend the importance of thinking strategically about HRM from different theoretical perspectives and the implications for the roles of HR professionals.
- Critically analyse HR policies and practices against contemporary theory and established principles.

Group Presentation

Assessment Type ¹: Presentation

Indicative Time on Task ²: 10 hours

Due: Weeks 9-13

Weighting: 20%

This assignment involves analysis of how particular case study organisations manage specific aspects of managing people at work. Groups will be allocated to examine a particular firm and a particular managing people topic in relation to that firm. The purpose of this assessment is to develop your skills in the critical evaluation of existing HR policy and practice in firms and the option for redesigning approaches to managing people. Presentations will have a 15-minute maximum duration

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically analyse HR policies and practices against contemporary theory and established principles.
- Design HR strategies in key areas of practice that support the creation of value and competitive advantage while also promoting employee wellbeing and decent work.

Literature Review

Assessment Type ¹: Literature review

Indicative Time on Task ²: 15 hours

Due: Week 13

Weighting: 40%

Students undertaking MGMT750 are required to undertake a literature review essay. The topic will align with both the Managing People subject matter of this Unit and with their MRes research focus/interest. Where an alignment with the student's MRes focus cannot be found, the literature review will be on a topic wholly within the Managing People focus of this Unit. Students submit a review which encompasses the major threads of literature on the given topic, while also critiquing this literature (e.g. scope, research methods, depth, breadth) and identifying gaps for future research. The word length for the Literature Review is 2,400-words.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Evaluate recent developments and contemporary issues in managing people at work.
- Defend the importance of thinking strategically about HRM from different theoretical perspectives and the implications for the roles of HR professionals.
- Critically analyse HR policies and practices against contemporary theory and established principles.
- Design HR strategies in key areas of practice that support the creation of value and competitive advantage while also promoting employee wellbeing and decent work.
- Prepare a critically appraised review of a topic.
