Unit description

This unit introduces a set of strategic management concepts and ideas to examine the key business policy decisions in managing an international business including: sources of competitive advantage in international competition; foreign market expansion strategies; international strategic alliances; global competitive dynamics; product and geographic diversification strategies; multinational organisational structures; and international corporate governance systems. By the end of the unit students should have an advanced understanding of the principles of developing a strategy for an international business as well the key factors that the firm must consider in respect of its external environment. Students are expected to critically apply the theoretical principles and concepts developed in this unit to solve real-world business problems through the use of the latest case studies, class debates/discussions, and presentations throughout the semester.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Develop an advanced understanding of the key theoretical principles and concepts in strategic management and their implications for international business ULO2: Evaluate and synthesise a variety of theoretical concepts and principles and critically apply them to solve key strategic problems and issues in global business

ULO3: Produce and deliver a persuasive and critical analysis in reflective writing and oral presentation for cases/issues related to global business strategy, both individually and in a team

General Assessment Information

Late Assessments must also be submitted through Turnitin. No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 40% penalty). Late submissions will be accepted up to 96 hours after the due date and time.

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

Assessment Tasks

Essay

Assessment Type 1: Essay

Indicative Time on Task 2: 20 hours

Due: Week 9 Weighting: 30%

The assessment requires students to conduct original research on a prescribed assignment question, which involves the collection and critical analysis of information from a range of sources, including academic journals, business magazines, newspapers and other media outlets. Students should search the information (e.g. newspapers and other media outlets) relevant to the case and analyse the case question through reference to relevant concepts and frameworks introduced in the unit. The essay should be up to 2000 words.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Evaluate and synthesise a variety of theoretical concepts and principles and critically apply them to solve key strategic problems and issues in global business
- Produce and deliver a persuasive and critical analysis in reflective writing and oral presentation for cases/issues related to global business strategy, both individually and in a team

Case study

Assessment Type 1: Presentation Indicative Time on Task 2: 20 hours

Due: Weeks 7 - 13 Weighting: 30%

The assessment requires students to work in team on a case study. The assessment helps students to develop team-work capability that mirrors the real-world business decision-making environment. The group presentation requires students to search information (e.g. journals, newspapers and other media outlets) relevant to their presentation case topics and critically apply relevant concepts and frameworks introduced in the unit to solve the problems prescribed by the case study questions. Students will deliver their case analysis and answers in the format of oral presentation.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Evaluate and synthesise a variety of theoretical concepts and principles and critically apply them to solve key strategic problems and issues in global business
- Produce and deliver a persuasive and critical analysis in reflective writing and oral presentation for cases/issues related to global business strategy, both individually and in a team

Problem Solving Analysis

Assessment Type 1: Case study/analysis Indicative Time on Task 2: 15 hours

Due: Weeks 13 Weighting: 40%

The assessment requires students to demonstrate an advanced understanding of the key theoretical principles and concepts introduced in the unit and apply most relevant concepts and models to solve strategic problems and issues in international business context. The word limit is up to 2,500.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop an advanced understanding of the key theoretical principles and concepts in strategic management and their implications for international business
- Evaluate and synthesise a variety of theoretical concepts and principles and critically apply them to solve key strategic problems and issues in global business
