Unit description
This unit aims to help students develop their knowledge of Ancient Greek language. It is designed for students who have already studied one semester of Ancient Greek. The unit completes the systematic introduction to the grammar and vocabulary of Ancient Greek. The unit aims to help students build skills in reading original Ancient Greek literary and documentary texts, such as inscriptions, and understand the significance of Ancient Greek in the study of relevant ancient cultures.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

General Assessment Information

Assessment Summary
Translation Exercises	50%; these are weekly exercises due each week on Sunday at midnight
	Short weekly exercises to practise vocabulary, grammar and syntax knowledge and the application of that knowledge. The exercises come directly from the unit textbook or are modified versions of exercises from the textbook. There is a separate schedule of the exercises for assessment on the unit's website. Some require translation from Ancient Greek, some into Ancient Greek. You do not need to submit all the exercises in the textbook--just answer the questions listed in the assessment schedule.
Online quizzes	10%: these are set to cover material in each chapter of the textbook (the textbook uses the term 'lesson' for chapter). You may take these at any time before the unit finishes (midnight on Sunday, week 13). It is best to complete each quiz directly after we have covered the material in that chapter.
	Short quizzes on the vocabulary and grammar covered in the course.
Texts: translation, grammatical analysis and historical significance	40%: due at midnight on Sunday of week 13. There will be exercises in translating from Ancient Greek and into Ancient Greek, exercises in grammatical analysis and the critical examination of the language, grammar and historical context of a specified text or texts.
	This will examine knowledge of grammar, syntax and vocabulary. Students will be asked to complete a variety of language-based problems including translation from Ancient Greek, translation into Ancient Greek, grammatical analysis and the critical study of the language and significance of an ancient text.

Please note: unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests

IMPORTANT NOTE ON FINAL MARKS: Please note with respect to the marks you receive for work during the session: that the marks given are indicative only; final marks will be determined after moderation. See further the note on Results in the Policies and Procedures section below.
