Unit description

Students in this unit will concentrate on the craft of life-writing, from memoir to travel writing, personal essays and writing that plays at the border between fact and fiction. The emphasis will be on refining storytelling techniques while examining the way the different elements of a story come together to convey the subjectivity of the writer and stir responses in the reader.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: identify, analyse and critique key issues raised in the production of life writing.

ULO2: research, write and edit stories of a high standard that fall into the broad category of life writing.

ULO3: evaluate the complexity of ethical issues in the field, and treat information in an ethical manner.

ULO4: utilise and apply writing techniques of a high standard.

ULO5: critically analyse and synthesise a variety of readings chosen as instructive on the craft of writing and use these to reflect on students' own writing.

General Assessment Information

Lectures are online, and they will begin in Week 1.

Tutorials will begin in Week 2.

Assessment tasks are aligned to the unit Learning Outcomes. Timely submission of assessment tasks is a unit requirement or penalties apply. Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (including weekends) after the original submission deadline.
