UL03: analyse media and advertising campaigns.
UL04: apply media theories in creating an international media or advertising campaign.
UL05: communicate disciplinary knowledge in oral presentations and/or writing.

General Assessment Information

Assignment grading

All assignments of this unit are aligned to the standards outlined in the Macquarie University Assessment Policy (https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policies/assessment). Marking rubric for each of the assignments is available on the iLearn. Students are expected to read the rubric before working on the assignment.

Late submission:

1. Assessment tasks are aligned to the unit learning outcomes. Timely submission of assessment tasks is a unit requirement.
2. Late submission penalty: Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Each student will submit a 1000-word essay on media and advertising in the contemporary world. Refer to iLearn for further information.
On successful completion you will be able to:

• analyse the relationships between public relations and advertising, the media, industry and NGOs.
• evaluate the theories and practices surrounding media and advertising.
• analyse media and advertising campaigns.
• communicate disciplinary knowledge in oral presentations and/or writing.

1 If you need help with your assignment, please contact:

• the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
• the Learning Skills Unit for academic skills support.

2 Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

This unit will be delivered in multi modes, including online lectures, online and on-campus tutorials, and consultations. Students are expected to complete the reading and reflect on the reading questions of the week before attending the lecture and tutorial.

Students are expected to make use of material and information available in the library, on the internet and other published resources to enrich their study experiences.

1. Online Lectures – Lectures start from Week One. Students are expected to attend the online lectures each week. Lecture notes (PPTs) will be uploaded onto iLearn each week after the lecture. Updated weekly reading list can be found in the end of each week's lecture PPT.

2. Tutorials – Tutorial classes start from Week Two. Students are required to attend and actively participate in the weekly tutorials (online or on-campus).

3. iLearn - The iLearn is an important information resource and communication platform for this unit. Important information about learning and teaching of this unit will be distributed through iLearn. It is expected that all students are visiting the iLearn regularly.

4. MQ email – Please check your MQ email regularly. This is the major channel the lecturer and tutors will use to circulate important information and announcement.
