Unit description

This unit investigates the topic of national identity in Italy. A variety of written and audio-visual materials provide students with an overview of core values and key historical events that have shaped modern Italy, such as the unification, Italy's role in WWII and the 'economic miracle', and the turmoils that led to what is commonly considered the end of the First Republic and the beginning of the New Republic under the Berlusconi government. Other aspects to be investigated include geography, historical eras, market forces, business, latest developments and the European Community.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Develop independent and analytical judgment.

ULO2: Demonstrate a refined awareness of oral and written communication skills in both Italian and in English.

ULO3: Demonstrate interpersonal communication skills in Italian and English through effective project management.

ULO4: Demonstrate ability to research, access, and prioritize information relevant to the construction of national identity in Italy.

ULO5: Identify, describe and evaluate many aspects of Italian culture and society.

General Assessment Information

General Assessment Information

Indicative examples of assessment tasks will be available on iLearn.

Marking criteria. Rubrics for both the oral presentation and written assignments can be found in the iLearn page.

External students must send answers to the weekly questions to the unit coordinator BEFORE the end of the on-campus class. These constitute part of their participation mark.

Indicative examples of assessment tasks will be available on iLearn.

Late Assessment Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.
