Unit description

This unit is offered on a pass/fail basis and designed for students who wish to complement their academic program through a short-term residential program relevant to their target language in International Studies: Languages and Cultures. This unit facilitates study at a partner university where intensive learning will take place in the student's target language and in regards to a topic relevant to their discipline. The program of study at the overseas institution will be approved and promoted by the Department of International Studies in collaboration with Macquarie International. The short period of intensive study is intended for students already studying a language at Macquarie, ideally those who are taking or have completed the introductory level(s). Participants will be selected for the program based on their application, suitability, and the relevance of the program to their degree.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: identify that language and culture interact, and relate that interaction to real-world situations and problems.

ULO2: show awareness of differences and similarities between language use in their native language or culture and the target language or culture, as well as thoughtful understandings of how to negotiate difficulties that arise during cross-cultural and/or cross-linguistic interactions

ULO3: increase their ability to clearly express, detail, defend, and/or promote ideas in public situations, through their native language and/or target language

ULO4: participate in diverse communities and collaborate with others on tasks.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Critical reflection	40%	No	2 weeks after program completion
Online intensive immersive course	60%	No	End of program

Critical reflection

Assessment Type ¹: Media presentation

Indicative Time on Task ²: 10 hours

Due: 2 weeks after program completion

Weighting: 40%

Students will produce a video wherein they discuss and reflect upon their experiences during the placement. The video should touch on an issue relating to what the student has learned, how they overcame challenges, how the experience related to their overall program of study, and the ways in which they will employ what they learned in the future study and/or community engagement. Additionally, students should discuss their preparation for the experience, and how this impacted their time during the project. The backup supplementary task for this assessment task is a project diary discussing the experience.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- identify that language and culture interact, and relate that interaction to real-world situations and problems.

- show awareness of differences and similarities between language use in their native language or culture and the target language or culture, as well as thoughtful understandings of how to negotiate difficulties that arise during cross-cultural and/or cross-linguistic interactions
- increase their ability to clearly express, detail, defend, and/or promote ideas in public situations, through their native language and/or target language
- participate in diverse communities and collaborate with others on tasks.

Online intensive immersive course

Assessment Type ¹: Participatory task

Indicative Time on Task ²: 70 hours

Due: End of program

Weighting: 60%

Students are required to satisfactorily complete the components of their approved program of study. The backup supplementary task for this assessment task must be an equivalent program or experience, arranged by the student with the host institution.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- identify that language and culture interact, and relate that interaction to real-world situations and problems.
- show awareness of differences and similarities between language use in their native language or culture and the target language or culture, as well as thoughtful understandings of how to negotiate difficulties that arise during cross-cultural and/or cross-linguistic interactions
- increase their ability to clearly express, detail, defend, and/or promote ideas in public situations, through their native language and/or target language
- participate in diverse communities and collaborate with others on tasks.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

TECHNOLOGY USED AND REQUIRED

Online Unit

Login is via: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>

Is my unit in iLearn?: https://unitguides.mq.edu.au/ilearn_unit_status/ to check when your online unit will become available.

Technology

Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.

For students attending classes on campus we strongly encourage that you bring along your own laptop computer, ready to work with activities in your online unit. The preferred operating system is Windows 10.

Students are required to access the online unit in iLearn by the end of Week 1 and follow any relevant instructions and links for downloads that may be required. If applicable, students are required to download the relevant language package prior to Week 2.

Please contact your course convenor before the end of Week 1 if you do not have a suitable laptop (or tablet) for in-class use.
