Unit description

This unit will focus on the advanced professional practice skills necessary for a well-rounded competent therapist. Drawing upon the common factors related to the client-therapist relationship, issues of therapeutic integration will be explored when working with diverse groups. Students will develop skills in analysing the client-therapist relationship through a consideration of the therapeutic process to ensure well targeted therapeutic interventions. These skills and principles will be emphasised in application to diverse populations using primarily cognitive behavioural approaches, and in the light of ethical considerations.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Report upon the therapeutic relationship through different modes of delivery, complex disorders, severe comorbidities, and diverse populations.

ULO2: Demonstrate both a creative and critical understanding of theory and evidence-based therapy integration

ULO3: Critically evaluate the prediction, prevention, and techniques to overcome resistance in cognitive behavioural therapy and other evidence-based approaches.

ULO4: Demonstrate a critical and current understanding of common and specific factors in therapy, and its implication for clinical practice.

ULO5: Demonstrate an understanding of methods of clinical supervision, and how to overcome common challenges to effective clinical practice.

General Assessment Information

Please see links to the Assessment Policy and the Special Consideration Policy in the Policies and Procedures section of this Unit Guide.

Late submissions

All assessment tasks have a strict due date. Ordinarily, no extensions of time for submission of assessment tasks will be granted. If students experience unexpected, unavoidable, and serious circumstances affecting submission of assessable work they may lodge an application for Special Consideration via ask.mq.edu.au with supporting documentary evidence. All requests for special consideration must be made no later than five working days after the due date of the assessment task. Where special consideration has not been granted, late submissions will not be accepted.

Hurdle requirements

All of the assessment tasks are hurdle requirements - they require a minimum level of performance in order for students to pass the Unit. The assessment tasks allow demonstration of 'fitness to practice' as a clinical psychologist. Consistent with the Assessment Policy of the University, students who make a serious attempt at the task but fail to meet the required standards, will be provided with one additional opportunity to complete the task to a satisfactory standard. Failure of the second attempt will result in a Fail (FH) grade for the entire unit (even if the raw mark for the Unit is over 50) and this, in turn, will result in a delay in starting the Clinic placement or further placements. The required standards for the hurdle tasks will be provided via iLearn prior to completion of the task.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Case Report	15%	Yes	Week 6
Case Report	30%	Yes	Week 10
Self-Reflective Report	25%	Yes	Week 12
Viva with a follow up self- reflective report	30%	Yes	Week 13

Case Report

Assessment Type ¹: Report

Indicative Time on Task ²: 10 hours

Due: Week 6

Weighting: 15%

This is a hurdle assessment task (see assessment policy for more information on hurdle assessment tasks)

Based upon a client vignette provided, the aim of this reflective 750 word report is to discuss theory, principles, and techniques in treatment that relate to overcoming resistance and maintaining a strong therapeutic alliance in CBT for complex diagnoses.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Report upon the therapeutic relationship through different modes of delivery, complex disorders, severe comorbidities, and diverse populations.
- Critically evaluate the prediction, prevention, and techniques to overcome resistance in cognitive behavioural therapy and other evidence-based approaches.
- Demonstrate a critical and current understanding of common and specific factors in therapy, and its implication for clinical practice.

Case Report

Assessment Type ¹: Report

Indicative Time on Task ²: 31 hours

Due: Week 10

Weighting: 30%

This is a hurdle assessment task (see assessment policy for more information on hurdle assessment tasks)

Based upon a case provided, and drawing upon factors related to the therapeutic relationship and specific evidence-based techniques, students will demonstrate competency in the theory and practice of therapeutic integration of different approaches to psychotherapy in relation to complex diagnoses. The report is 1500 words.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Report upon the therapeutic relationship through different modes of delivery, complex disorders, severe comorbidities, and diverse populations.
- Demonstrate both a creative and critical understanding of theory and evidence-based therapy integration

- Critically evaluate the prediction, prevention, and techniques to overcome resistance in cognitive behavioural therapy and other evidence-based approaches.
- Demonstrate a critical and current understanding of common and specific factors in therapy, and its implication for clinical practice.

Self-Reflective Report

Assessment Type ¹: Report

Indicative Time on Task ²: 32 hours

Due: Week 12

Weighting: 25%

This is a hurdle assessment task (see assessment policy for more information on hurdle assessment tasks)

Drawing upon material from the unit, students will briefly describe clinical settings where they expect potential challenges, including ways to overcome these. The report is 1500 words.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of methods of clinical supervision, and how to overcome common challenges to effective clinical practice.

Viva with a follow up self- reflective report

Assessment Type ¹: Viva/oral examination

Indicative Time on Task ²: 2 hours

Due: Week 13

Weighting: 30%

This is a hurdle assessment task (see assessment policy for more information on hurdle assessment tasks)

Students will be required to conduct part of a treatment session in 20 minutes that incorporates advanced clinical and counselling skills and techniques to working with complex diagnoses in a multidisciplinary setting, and overcoming resistance. Following the viva, a 500 word report will summarise key reflections upon the performance and will be submitted the following day.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Report upon the therapeutic relationship through different modes of delivery, complex disorders, severe comorbidities, and diverse populations.

- Demonstrate both a creative and critical understanding of theory and evidence-based therapy integration
 - Critically evaluate the prediction, prevention, and techniques to overcome resistance in cognitive behavioural therapy and other evidence-based approaches.
 - Demonstrate a critical and current understanding of common and specific factors in therapy, and its implication for clinical practice.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Teaching will include weekly seminars, class discussions, videos/audio clips, role-plays, and practical skills training. There will be weekly required readings. Additional resources and reading material will be provided throughout the course during the relevant sections. Engagement with material and participation in class is essential. Classes will include didactic methods, debates, and self-reflection.

Unit Schedule

Timetables for seminars can be found on the University website at: <https://timetables.mq.edu.au/2020/>
