Unit description
This unit introduces the topic of child abuse and neglect. The prevalence of physical, sexual, and emotional abuse and neglect is canvassed and the empirical literature relevant to all forms of abuse and neglect is reviewed. Theoretical models for conceptualising and understanding child abuse and neglect are presented. There is considerable emphasis not only on the outcomes of child abuse and neglect but also on the psychological processes that mediate these outcomes. The adequacy of prevention and intervention programs will be appraised and the operation of some of these programs in New South Wales will be considered.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Describe the major concepts, theoretical perspectives, empirical findings, and historical trends in child abuse and neglect.

ULO2: Critically evaluate the research methods used in empirical research

ULO3: Apply knowledge of child abuse and neglect research findings in various contexts (e.g. family, school).

ULO4: Competently use technological resources to obtain information on child abuse and neglect.

ULO5: Explain the variations in child abuse and neglect across different cultural, ethnic and socioeconomic contexts.

ULO6: Demonstrate skills for designing research on child abuse and neglect to be used to guide intervention and prevention programs, and to formulate policy.

General Assessment Information

Teaching and Learning Strategy

- The unit is taught by lectures.
- Students are expected to read in advance and follow current developments relating to child abuse and neglect in the media.
- A week-by-week list of the topics is provided on ilearn.

Relationship between Assessment and Learning Outcomes

- The assessment tasks involve an essay, a field report, and short answer exam questions. The aim is to assess conceptual knowledge, critical evaluation of research, and the ability to communicate.

- Assessment tasks: Essay - 50% (essay questions will be provided in the second week of class); field or media report - 20%; short answer exam questions - 30%.

- Word length of each form of assessment: essay (1500 words); field or media report (500 words); short answers exam questions (250 words each).

- Due dates: Field/media report – 3rd November; Essay – 19th October; Exam – 3rd November.

- Return of marked work: After the examiners' meeting.

- Sudents are required to also submit copies of all written assignments to Turnitin via ilearn. Students must include their Turnitin Paper ID number and submission date on Assignment Coversheet as evidence of submission.

- Field/media report Submission Procedure: Field/media reports must be submitted online through iLearn on Tuesday, November 3rd.

- Essay Submission Procedure: Essays must be submitted online through iLearn by 5 pm on Monday, October 19th.

- Extension Requests (Application for Unavoidable Disruption): Ordinarily, no extensions of time for submission of written work will be granted since ample time for its preparation will have been given. If an extension is required for medical or other extenuating circumstances, students may request for extension due to Unavoidable Disruption by submitting an online request via ask.mq.edu.au with supporting documentary evidence (such as medical certificate, counsellor note, or similar). The Honours Administrator Donna Keeley will review your request and forward it to unit convener for approval. All requests for Disruption must be made prior to the due date for the assignment.

- If an extension is granted, you will need to print the approval email and attach it to the assignment. Failure to do so will result in a late penalty being applied as the marker will not know that an extension has been granted.

AFTER AN ASSIGNMENT IS SUBMITTED:

- Assignments will not be accepted after the return of marked assignments.

Expectations in relation to the presentation of written and/or oral and group work:

- Length penalty: The penalty is a percentage (5%) of the maximum mark for every 100 words over the stipulated length of all written work. The assignment is worth 50% of the overall assessment for the Unit; for every 100 words over 2000 words, 2.5 marks (5% x 50 = 2.5) will be subtracted from the mark the student receives for the assignment. For an essay 200 words over the 2000 stipulated, 5 marks will be subtracted, etc.

- Late submission penalty: Penalties will be levied for late submission of assignment and for exceeding the word limit. A late penalty of one mark per day will be imposed on all work submitted late without an extension.

END OF SEMESTER EXAMS:

- If you are unable to sit an exam, you are required to submit Special Consideration form/ Supplementary Exam Request (and Professional Authority Section must be completed with appropriate supporting documentation if appropriate, clearly stating the reasons for the absence from the exam). Special considerations requests must be submitted via Tracker (i.e. ask.mq.edu.au). The form should be submitted within five days from the day of the examination. The unit chair will determine eligibility for a late exam.
- Supplementary Exams are only offered to students who have satisfactorily completed all other assessments for the unit and were unable to sit the final exam.
