Unit description

This unit develops students' capacity to apply the principles of organisational psychology in the context of the teams. Students will develop the skills necessary to engage with teams, select psychometric tests that are appropriate for specific teams, and formulate reports under the guidance of a supervisor. This practical placement unit is approximately 250 hours workload. Students are required to complete at least a thousand hours across all placements in the program to meet accreditation requirements. The diversity of tasks and roles within organisational psychology means that even students who have repeatedly demonstrated competency may still have gaps in professional knowledge and skill that may limit their competency in some specific contexts.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Demonstrate well developed depth and breadth of knowledge and scholarly understanding required of organisational psychologists in determining client needs and designing and implementing evidence-based interventions.

ULO2: Demonstrate strong higher level critical thinking skills in the ability both to generate and evaluate new, professionally-oriented knowledge.

ULO3: Demonstrate very strong communication skills across a wide range of client groups, colleagues and other professionals, using a variety of formats to function empathically within and across cultures and life stages.

ULO4: Demonstrate strong knowledge of the legislative frameworks relevant to organisational psychologists and undertake practice according to professional standards and the Psychology Board of Australia's code of ethics.

ULO5: Demonstrate strong progression towards employment-ready level capabilities required of practicing organisational psychologists, along with the professional and personal skills for assessing continuous development needs.

General Assessment Information

Placements may occur in a variety of settings where psychological services are provided to clients. Students on placement must meet the psychology discipline's fitness to practice requirements as well as adhere to all the guidelines provided in placement manuals and any other specific policy and procedures provided by a provider hosting an external placement.

Students must comply with any instructions given by a supervisor including any request to pause or terminate a placement. If requested to leave a placement, students must notify the Course clinical placement coordinator within 24 hours. Following notification, a review of the circumstances leading to the request will be investigated. If the circumstances indicate that request was solely because of issues with the placement provider an alternate placement will be arranged. Alternatively if the request was made because of concerns regarding the student, the issue will be managed according to the University's procedures.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Weekly Supervision and Professional Service Provision	30%	Yes	Approximately one hour per two placement days
Mid-placement review (MPR)	35%	Yes	Due approximately half way through placement
End of placement review (EPR)	35%	Yes	Due on placement completion

Weekly Supervision and Professional Service Provision

Assessment Type <sup>1</sup>: Work-integrated task

Indicative Time on Task <sup>2</sup>: 18 hours

Due: Approximately one hour per two placement days

Weighting: 30%

This is a hurdle assessment task (see assessment policy for more information on hurdle assessment tasks)

Students participate in project Management under close supervision. Students will be assessed on formative project skills, professional conduct, self-reflection, ethics and communication skills including report writing and response to supervision.

On successful completion you will be able to:
