Unit description

This unit draws on knowledge from across the International Relations program, requiring candidates to apply their earlier learning to urgent and/or controversial themes in international relations - i.e. international political problems. Assessment components include a participatory exercise (a simulation that involves role playing), an essay, and an end of semester exam. This holistic and balanced range of tasks enables students to acquire (i) some specialist and general theoretical knowledge; (ii) to develop and apply negotiation, communication and practical problem solving abilities; (iii) enhance research and writing skills.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Identify and articulate views on a contemporary political issue in verbal and written format

ULO2: demonstrate insight into some concepts, ideas and practice in world politics

ULO3: explain relationships between elements of domestic and international politics including institutions, historical influences and current context

ULO4: understand and apply diplomatic skills in a practical scenario

General Assessment Information

Late Submission Penalty

“Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes and the take-home exam unless prior arrangements have been made via email with the unit convenor.”
