Unit description

Theocritus wrote: '... there's no country so fruitful as the low-country of Egypt when Nile comes gushing up to soak the soil and break it, nor no country, neither, possessed of so many cities of men learned in labour ... and in them the lord and master of all is proud Ptolemy.' In this unit this powerful empire is studied. Its kings, fifteen of them, all had the name of Ptolemy. In their capital city of Alexandria, founded by and named after Alexander the Great, the kings of the Ptolemy family built the Museum and Library which made their empire the beating heart of the Greek intellectual world. Theirs was the longest-lasting of the successor kingdoms which took over the lands conquered by Alexander, lasting until Octavian (later known as Caesar Augustus) defeated Cleopatra VII and Mark Antony in a sea-battle at Actium in 31 BC. All enrolment queries should be directed to Open Universities Australia (OUA): see www.open.edu.au

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Apply and assimilate information in a context appropriate to postgraduate study.

ULO2: Demonstrate understanding orally and in writing, by deduction and argumentation.

ULO3: Develop and apply techniques of understanding ancient sources of differing kinds.

ULO4: Relate understanding of the ancient world to broad conceptual frameworks and modern contexts.

ULO5: Show in writing critical understanding of factual questions and judgements of likelihood and value.

ULO6: Create texts which reason persuasively from a historical question to a provisional answer, citing relevant evidence.

General Assessment Information

Minor Essay:

Essay titles, bibliographies and hints will be found in iLearn.

Major Essay:

Essay titles, bibliographies and hints will be found in iLearn.

Short-Answer Summaries

See iLearn for further details. Questions to be answered as short-answer summaries will be released at the beginning of Week 13.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Major essay	40%	No	7 May 2021
Short-Answer Summaries	40%	No	11 June 2021
Minor essay	20%	No	5 March 2021

Major essay

Assessment Type ¹: Essay

Indicative Time on Task ²: 30 hours

Due: 7 May 2021

Weighting: 40%

Students will write an essay (word-limit 2000 words including footnotes but not including bibliography list) on one of the titles given in iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Apply and assimilate information in a context appropriate to postgraduate study.
- Demonstrate understanding orally and in writing, by deduction and argumentation.
- Develop and apply techniques of understanding ancient sources of differing kinds.
- Create texts which reason persuasively from a historical question to a provisional answer, citing relevant evidence.

Short-Answer Summaries

Assessment Type ¹: Summary

Indicative Time on Task ²: 4 hours

Due: 11 June 2021

Weighting: 40%

A choice of short-answer summaries will be set. Four summaries must be given. The word-length for the short-answer summaries document as a whole is 2,500 words, so that each summary should be approximately 625 words long. Some leeway is allowed on length, but there will be no extra marks for long answers. These summaries are not another essay. Footnoting should not be used, and bibliographies should not be given. What is required is a set of well thought out but relatively brief answers to analytical questions drawn from across the ideas and events dealt with in the unit. The idea is that it should be possible to write the full set of summaries in three hours, although there is no way of checking that a student does not spend four or five hours writing: note again that there will be no credit for extra length. The questions for the short-answer summaries will be made available in the iLearn unit during Weeks 13 and 14. Answers must be submitted at the end of Week 14.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Apply and assimilate information in a context appropriate to postgraduate study.
- Demonstrate understanding orally and in writing, by deduction and argumentation.
- Develop and apply techniques of understanding ancient sources of differing kinds.
- Relate understanding of the ancient world to broad conceptual frameworks and modern contexts.
- Show in writing critical understanding of factual questions and judgements of likelihood and value.
- Create texts which reason persuasively from a historical question to a provisional answer, citing relevant evidence.

Minor essay

Assessment Type ¹: Essay

Indicative Time on Task ²: 15 hours

Due: 5 March 2021

Weighting: 20%

Students will write an essay (word-limit 1000 words including footnotes but not including bibliography list) on one of the titles given in iLearn.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Apply and assimilate information in a context appropriate to postgraduate study.
- Demonstrate understanding orally and in writing, by deduction and argumentation.
- Develop and apply techniques of understanding ancient sources of differing kinds.
- Create texts which reason persuasively from a historical question to a provisional answer, citing relevant evidence.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Required and recommended texts and/or materials

Required Reading

Günther Hölbl, A History of the Ptolemaic Empire (London and New York, 2001)

J.G. Manning, The Last Pharaohs: Egypt under the Ptolemies 305-30 BC (Princeton, 2010)

Recommended Reading

Please read widely from the bibliographies given in each week's iLearn section. Many items are in the unit readings. Please don't draw a strong distinction between 'required' and 'recommended' reading. In general, don't aim to do the minimum in this unit

Unit webpage and technology used and required

Online units can be accessed at: <http://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>

PC and Internet access are required.

Basic computer skills (e.g., internet browsing) and skills in word processing are also a requirement. Please contact teaching staff for any further, more specific requirements. But for any computer problems, teaching staff cannot help you. Go to Macquarie University IT support: Phone 02 98504357, or email onehelp@mq.edu.au.

University policy on grading

University Grading Policy <http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/grading/policy.html>

The grade a student receives will signify their overall performance in meeting the learning outcomes of a unit of study. Grades will not be awarded by reference to the achievement of other students nor allocated to fit a predetermined distribution. In determining a grade, due weight will be given to the learning outcomes and level of a unit (ie 1000, 2000, 3000, 8000 etc).

Graded units will use the following grades:

HD High Distinction 85-100

D Distinction 75-84

Cr Credit 65-74

P Pass 50-64

F Fail 0-49

Extensions

Please hand your work in on time.

If this is impossible, use ask.mq to ask for Special Consideration. A medical certificate or equivalent will be required.

Please don't ask the Unit Coordinator for an extension. He is not allowed to give extensions (the Special Consideration procedure is the only route to follow).

'Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply—2 marks (out of a total of 100 marks) will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date—and (b) no assignment will be accepted seven days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline.'

The paragraph above is an official wording. The supposition behind '2 marks (out of a total of 100 marks)' is that each particular assignment is marked out of 100. The deduction is not 2% of the final percentage mark for the unit for each day late with an assignment. Because in this unit, assignments are marked out of 20 or 40, the deduction for each day late for the minor essay will be 2% of 20 marks, i.e. 0.4 of a mark, and so on.
