Session 2 Learning and Teaching Update

The decision has been made to conduct study online for the remainder of Session 2 for all units WITHOUT mandatory on-campus learning activities. Exams for Session 2 will also be online where possible to do so.

This is due to the extension of the lockdown orders and to provide certainty around arrangements for the remainder of Session 2. We hope to return to campus beyond Session 2 as soon as it is safe and appropriate to do so.

Some classes/teaching activities cannot be moved online and must be taught on campus. You should already know if you are in one of these classes/teaching activities and your unit convenor will provide you with more information via iLearn. If you want to confirm, see the list of units with mandatory on-campus classes/teaching activities.

Visit the MQ COVID-19 information page for more detail.

Unit description

Businesses and organisations everywhere are facing challenges and finding opportunities brought about by a globalised business environment and an increasingly diverse workforce. It is imperative that business managers develop a high level of cultural intelligence to effectively manage diverse workforce and interact with stakeholders across cultures. Learning how to be a culturally intelligent manager is a key future-focused capability required of every leader. This unit develops future business leaders' cultural intelligence through a series of structured learning activities with real world case studies and assessments. Students will develop their cultural intelligence, gain practical skills in diversity management, and develop global perspectives in business and personal communication and decision making. Particular focus is placed on the skills and knowledge that equip business leaders to make sense of a wide variety of attitudes, values, norms, beliefs and perceptions from individuals with different cultural backgrounds and the cultural sensitivity that business leaders need to acquire to effectively manage self and others in a globalised business environment.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Critically evaluate the key components of cultural intelligence and its role in affecting business and personal communication and decision making.

ULO2: Develop strategies of acquiring cultural intelligence and applying it in a variety of business contexts when managing self and others.

ULO3: Develop global perspectives and cultural sensitivity in managing diversity and interacting across cultures.
