Unit description

This unit provides an advanced introduction to the study of international political economy, and to develop students' research, analytical and problem-solving skills. The unit examines the key questions, concepts, findings and controversies in the study of economic globalisation and considers the role of the state and non-state actors in shaping the regional and global integration of political economies.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: To convey an understanding of the major debates and contemporary issues raised by the study of International Political Economy.

ULO2: To deepen knowledge on the rise of new state and non-state global and international power actors brought about globalisation.

ULO3: To impart a critical understanding of the diverse impacts of global economic integration, especially on the state's governing powers over the economy through contemporary conceptual approaches and empirical case studies.

ULO4: To promote a macro (big picture) perspective on economic globalisation's impacts, which integrates theory and empirical evidence.

ULO5: To develop a degree of knowledge in the policy dimensions of global economic integration.

General Assessment Information

PENALTIES FOR LATE WORK

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – 2 marks out of a total of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Delivery and Resources

COURSE STRUCTURE

This course is taught with 1 two-hour lecture followed by 1 one-hour tutorial each week. Lectures will be recorded and uploaded onto the iLearn website prior to the online and on-campus tutorials on Fridays. See the following link for full details on lecture and tutorials locations and times: <https://timetables.mq.edu.au/2021/Reports/List.aspx>.

Students are expected to attend/listen all lectures and actively participate in all Tutorials/Online Discussion Forums. As a senior undergraduate course, student participation is paramount. Students are therefore expected to come to tutorials or participate in Online Discussion Forums having done the reading and considered discussion topics.

Online Resources

You can log on to the iLearn and iTeach e-learning system. The unit outline, teaching aids, essential readings, and guidelines for the Research Essay will be posted on the unit websites. Students are responsible for checking the unit website regularly for relevant announcements, scheduled changes, and other information.
