Session 2 Learning and Teaching Update

The decision has been made to conduct study online for the remainder of Session 2 for all units WITHOUT mandatory on-campus learning activities. Exams for Session 2 will also be online where possible to do so.

This is due to the extension of the lockdown orders and to provide certainty around arrangements for the remainder of Session 2. We hope to return to campus beyond Session 2 as soon as it is safe and appropriate to do so.

Some classes/teaching activities cannot be moved online and must be taught on campus. You should already know if you are in one of these classes/teaching activities and your unit convenor will provide you with more information via iLearn. If you want to confirm, see the list of units with mandatory on-campus classes/teaching activities.

Visit the MQ COVID-19 information page for more detail.

Unit description
This unit focuses on the role of accounting in governance and accountability. The link between accounting and governance is discussed through the concepts of measurement, valuation, conceptual framework, reporting and communication of financial and non-financial information. The unit also acquaints students with how to apply computerised accounting software to record financial transactions and adjust accounting entries, and to prepare bank reconciliation and financial statements. On the completion of this unit, students are expected to understand the role of accounting in discharging accountability, provide accounting treatment for assets, liabilities and equity, analyse and interpret financial statements, and understand the regulatory accounting environment. Critical, analytical and integrative thinking, problem solving, communication and teamwork skills are developed through treatments of accounting transactions and events, and the completion of a business report and group project.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation.

Delivery and Resources

Prescribed textbook and recommended materials

- Access to the textbook is essential for lecture references and for tutorial questions. All chapter references in the unit schedule refer to the prescribed textbook unless otherwise indicated.
- The recommended textbook is an E-TEXT with interactive features. The E-TEXT can be purchased online at: https://www.wileydirect.com.au/buy/financial-accounting-reporting-analysis-and-decision-making-6th-edition/ or via booktopia at the beginning of the session.
- As an alternative to the recommended E-TEXT, a hard copy of the textbook can be purchased from both sources. Limited copies of the textbook are available at the University library.

Recommended additional materials

- Solomon, L (2019) 'Corporate governance and accountability', Wiley, Chichester, United Kingdom. (CHAPTER 1 only).

Technology used and required
You must be familiar with the learning management system, iLearn;
• Leganto (see ACCG1001 website) where access to the e-textbook and other recommended readings can be found;
• You will need to conduct research and be familiar with Internet search engines and various library databases to source materials;
• You will be required to use the MYOB software to complete the MYOB tasks

Unit Web Page

• All course materials are available on the learning management system (iLearn). It is essential that you regularly visit the unit's web page. It is here that you will have access to the Unit Guide, announcements, supplementary reading materials, weekly lecture and tutorial materials, and staff consultation hours.
• The web page for this unit can be found at: http://ilearn.mq.edu.au. To access the web page, you need to enter your username and password. You should contact the IT Helpdesk if you need any assistance at: https://students.mq.edu.au/support/technology/service-desk

Learning and Teaching Activities

Classes

Classes for ACCG1001 in Session 2 2021 consist of a weekly pre-recorded online lecture and a weekly face-to-face on campus tutorial or an online zoom tutorial.

The pre-recorded lectures will be uploaded on iLearn weekly. Each week's lecture will provide an explanation of that week's learning concepts as well as practical explanations and examples to supplement the concept materials. Each week you are expected to read both the relevant textbook chapter(s) listed in the unit schedule and any supplementary materials specified on iLearn in addition to watching the pre-recorded lecture. Lecture slides, in pdf format, will be available on the ACCG1001 iLearn web page on a weekly basis.

The weekly tutorial classes will be for a duration of 1.5 hours and commence in Week 2. Students can choose to enrol in either a face-to-face on campus tutorial or an online zoom tutorial. The face-to-face or online zoom tutorials will involve the tutors and the students working through pre-set tutorial questions as well as in-class tutorial activities. Students must register for a tutorial and attend their registered tutorial. Students are advised that any changes to tutorial classes must be made online through eStudent.

The purpose of tutorials (from Week 2 to 13) is to provide an interactive learning environment in which to apply and practice the content covered in lectures. You are expected to watch the online lectures and attempt the weekly tutorial homework questions before attending your registered tutorial class. The suggested solutions to tutorial homework questions will be made available on the ACCG1001 iLearn web page at the end of each week.
