Session 2 Learning and Teaching Update
The decision has been made to conduct study online for the remainder of Session 2 for all units WITHOUT mandatory on-campus learning activities. Exams for Session 2 will also be online where possible to do so.

This is due to the extension of the lockdown orders and to provide certainty around arrangements for the remainder of Session 2. We hope to return to campus beyond Session 2 as soon as it is safe and appropriate to do so.

Some classes/teaching activities cannot be moved online and must be taught on campus. You should already know if you are in one of these classes/teaching activities and your unit convenor will provide you with more information via iLearn. If you want to confirm, see the list of units with mandatory on-campus classes/teaching activities.

Visit the MQ COVID-19 information page for more detail.

Unit description
This unit is designed to enable students to acquire the knowledge necessary to identify the need for organisational change, establish the principles of organisational change from an organisational psychological perspective, and evaluate the outcomes of organisational change, particularly in terms of the psychological demands on workers. Students will be introduced to survey design and development to meet a range of purposes and will learn about the practical aspects of survey administration.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Describe and apply theories and models of change management and organisational development

ULO2: Identify and compare evidence-based individual, group, and organisational-wide approaches to organisational change/development interventions

ULO3: Apply a basic level of competence in diagnosing, planning, implementing, and evaluating an organisational change/development intervention

ULO4: Demonstrate a basic level of interpersonal skills that enable effective oral and written communication with organisational clients throughout a change/development process

ULO5: Demonstrate an understanding of the considerations required when designing, administering, and reporting surveys in an organisational setting, including ethical issues.

General Assessment Information

Late Submissions: Late submissions, without an approved extension, will receive a 5% per day penalty including weekends and public holidays. If you submit the assessment task 10 days or more beyond the due date, you will be awarded a maximum of 50% of the overall assessment marks. No further submissions will be accepted after the marked assignments are returned and feedback is released to students. All extensions need to be formally requested via ask.mq.edu.au in line with the special consideration policy. A Word Count Penalty 5% of the possible mark will be deducted per 100 words over the word limit for written assessment tasks. An additional 99 words beyond the limit can be written.

Supplementary Assessment Tasks: Supplementary assessment tasks will only be provided following an approved Special Consideration application, and only when appropriate. Supplementary assessment tasks, including supplementary exams, can be in a different format to the original assessment task.

Diagnosis in Organisational Settings

Assessment Type: Case study/analysis

Indicative Time on Task: 40 hours

Due: 28/8/21

Weighting: 40%

Students are required to respond to a series of cases that describe hypothetical organisational change scenarios and form an initial diagnosis, indicate the sources of relevant information, and formulate case analyses.
On successful completion you will be able to:

- Describe and apply theories and models of change management and organisational development
- Apply a basic level of competence in diagnosing, planning, implementing, and evaluating an organisational change/development intervention
- Demonstrate an understanding of the considerations required when designing, administering, and reporting surveys in an organisational setting, including ethical issues.

Culture change case Study

Assessment Type 1: Case study/analysis
Indicative Time on Task 2: 65 hours
Due: 11/10/21
Weighting: 60%

In this case study analysis, students are required to link culture and culture change theories with organisational development interventions in a real business situation. It highlights the practical and theoretical issues involved in identifying cultural challenges in designing and implementing a culture change intervention.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Describe and apply theories and models of change management and organisational development
- Identify and compare evidence-based individual, group, and organisational-wide approaches to organisational change/development interventions
- Apply a basic level of competence in diagnosing, planning, implementing, and evaluating an organisational change/development intervention
- Demonstrate a basic level of interpersonal skills that enable effective oral and written communication with organisational clients throughout a change/development process

1 If you need help with your assignment, please contact:

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Learning Skills Unit for academic skills support.

2 Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation.
