Session 2 Learning and Teaching Update

The decision has been made to conduct study online for the remainder of Session 2 for all units WITHOUT mandatory on-campus learning activities. Exams for Session 2 will also be online where possible to do so.

This is due to the extension of the lockdown orders and to provide certainty around arrangements for the remainder of Session 2. We hope to return to campus beyond Session 2 as soon as it is safe and appropriate to do so.

Some classes/teaching activities cannot be moved online and must be taught on campus. You should already know if you are in one of these classes/teaching activities and your unit convenor will provide you with more information via iLearn. If you want to confirm, see the list of units with mandatory on-campus classes/teaching activities.

Visit the MQ COVID-19 information page for more detail.

Unit description Dispute resolution schemes now dominate the practice of law at many levels. This unit explores various types of dispute resolution processes with an emphasis on negotiation, mediation, conciliation, arbitration and restorative justice. The unit provides an overview of the theory, philosophy, process, ethical and legal issues involved in each of these methods of dispute resolution. Through experiential role plays, discussions, exercises and research, students will be introduced to the skills required to advise on and participate in conflict resolution and management.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Describe and critique the various types of dispute resolution processes in operation in Australia and other jurisdictions.

ULO2: Demonstrate and apply the necessary skills required in alternative methods of resolving disputes, including in teams.

ULO3: Identify, research and analyse the legal issues surrounding the practice of dispute resolution in Australia.

ULO4: Research and critique the relevant ethical considerations in dispute resolution and management processes.

ULO5: Identify and apply the applicable dispute resolution process to the nature of the dispute and the participants in that dispute.
