Unit description

This unit examines the impacts of new technologies on media practices, industries and economies. Key media forms are contextualised within histories of transformation and continuity, and current issues affecting production and distribution are explored.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: perform sophisticated critical analysis of creative media works.

ULO2: demonstrate advanced theoretical knowledge and understanding specific to the discipline of media arts and media practice.

ULO3: communicate knowledge and critical expertise to professional audiences individually and as part of a group.

ULO4: analyse and evaluate creative media practice within a broader theoretical and environmental framework.

ULO5: synthesize theoretical and creative approaches to contemporary issues in media practice.

General Assessment Information

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Assessment Tasks

Indicative Time on Task ²: 70 hours

Due: 31/5/2021

Weighting: 60%

Working in groups of three, four or five (groups are allocated), students will develop and pitch a comprehensive digital media strategy.

Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- perform sophisticated critical analysis of creative media works.
- demonstrate advanced theoretical knowledge and understanding specific to the discipline of media arts and media practice.
- communicate knowledge and critical expertise to professional audiences individually and as part of a group.
- analyse and evaluate creative media practice within a broader theoretical and environmental framework.
- synthesize theoretical and creative approaches to contemporary issues in media practice.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

This unit is offered both in on-campus and online only mode, so please ensure you are enrolled in the mode of your preference. Classes will comprise of 2hr seminars made up of mini lectures and a range of learning activities. It entails a collaborative group project that you will be developing into a pitch for our industry partner. The site is supported by extensive resources for individual research and a set of independent study questions that will allow you to prepare for classes.
