Session 2 Learning and Teaching Update
The decision has been made to conduct study online for the remainder of Session 2 for all units WITHOUT mandatory on-campus learning activities. Exams for Session 2 will also be online where possible to do so.

This is due to the extension of the lockdown orders and to provide certainty around arrangements for the remainder of Session 2. We hope to return to campus beyond Session 2 as soon as it is safe and appropriate to do so.

Some classes/teaching activities cannot be moved online and must be taught on campus. You should already know if you are in one of these classes/teaching activities and your unit convenor will provide you with more information via iLearn. If you want to confirm, see the list of units with mandatory on-campus classes/teaching activities.

Visit the MQ COVID-19 information page for more detail.

Unit description
This unit examines optimal investments strategies with respect to risk and return; the role and characteristics of international financial markets and institutions; the pricing of various financial products and how they can be used for hedging. It builds econometric models based on financial variables and how these are utilised in managing market, credit and operational risks. Students are also introduced to advanced techniques in financial markets and risk management practices.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- ULO1: Illustrate coherent theoretical and technical knowledge in the discipline and practice of financial risk management.
- ULO2: Analyse, generate and transmit solutions to risk problems in financial institutions.
- ULO3: Formulate well-developed judgement of knowledge and responsibility to provide specialist advice in situations of financial risk.
- ULO4: Evaluate econometric models for financial variables.

2 Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

The content for each week will comprise of a lecture and a set of tutorial questions (Problem Sets).

Lectures
A lecture will be held each week. Lecture notes will be available on iLearn. Please refer to iLearn announcement for class delivery mode.

Tutorials
Students will need to register for a tutorial. Tutorials are considered compulsory but no marks are allocated. Tutorials will be available for most, but not all weeks of the session. In weeks where there aren't any live (on-campus or online) tutorials, a recording will be provided to cover the relevant material.

The tutorial schedule will be made available on iLearn.

Tutorial enrolment or change of tutorial can be made through eStudent in the first two weeks of the session. No tutorial changes are allowed after Week 2. Students should attend their allocated tutorial, but exceptions may occur on a one-off basis. That is, where circumstances prevent you from attending your own tutorial in a given week, you may attend an alternative tutorial if room available.

Students are expected to complete the 'Tutorial Questions' as a self-directed study activity before attending a tutorial. Additional learning support will be available in tutor consultation times.
