Session 2 Learning and Teaching Update

The decision has been made to conduct study online for the remainder of Session 2 for all units WITHOUT mandatory on-campus learning activities. Exams for Session 2 will also be online where possible to do so.

This is due to the extension of the lockdown orders and to provide certainty around arrangements for the remainder of Session 2. We hope to return to campus beyond Session 2 as soon as it is safe and appropriate to do so.

Some classes/teaching activities cannot be moved online and must be taught on campus. You should already know if you are in one of these classes/teaching activities and your unit convenor will provide you with more information via iLearn. If you want to confirm, see the list of units with mandatory on-campus classes/teaching activities.

Visit the MQ COVID-19 information page for more detail.

Unit description

What exactly is a corporation? Whose interests do corporations serve? How should corporations be held responsible for social or environmental harms? These are just some of the questions this course addresses. Corporations are powerful and complex legal creations with immense influence over society, economy, politics and environment. In this advanced unit, students will build on existing knowledge of business organisations and corporate law to gain deeper insight into how corporations govern themselves and how they are regulated by external actors, both in Australia and internationally. Students will engage in research and critical analysis of existing corporate governance strategies and the laws that govern corporate interactions, advancing their understanding of the actors and organisations that impact corporate governance, including: corporate boards, corporate regulators, auditors and stock exchanges. This course provides an opportunity to explore concepts such as Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR), Environmental and Social Governance (ESG), and Business and Human Rights. Students will analyse the relationships and legal obligations between corporations and their shareholders, creditors, employees and customers.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Understand and convey key concepts related to corporate governance and corporate regulation.

ULO2: Describe and analyse the context in which corporate governance policies and practices operate

ULO3: Examine alternative corporate law and regulatory models and assess their application

ULO4: Review and critique existing corporate law and regulatory strategies domestically and internationally

General Assessment Information

Please note the change to case study component listed above. Rather than a series of case studies, you will be required to select a single case study from the course and write an 1,800 word research essay (inclusive of footnotes) using that case study. Your research essay should demonstrate your critical understanding and engagement with the subject matter from this course AND your ability to conduct independent research. This essay will provide 40% of your final grade. Details of the relevant components of the essay and the formal structure will be provided on Monday the 6th of September. The essay will be due on 7 November at 5pm.

NEW FACULTY LATE ASSESSMENT POLICY

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – 10 marks out of 100 (10%) will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted seven days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline.

Delivery and Resources

This course is based on the text: du Plessis, Hargovan & Harris, Principles of Contemporary Corporate Governance (4th Ed, 2018)

It is HIGHLY recommended that you purchase the textbook for this course, as it is essential reading.

Additional readings will be noted on iLearn and provided via Leganto.

Unit Schedule

This course is made up of 12 weeks of online content (approximately 2 hours of content each week) and 6 online tutorials of two hours each.

Please note, some of the online content for this course is shared with its undergraduate sister course LAWS5036. However, in LAWS8050 we will explore content in greater detail than in LAWS5036 and the assessment structure reflects this reality.

The 12 weekly modules and accompanying tutorials cover the following topics:

1. The Concept of Corporate Governance
2. Stakeholders & Corporate Social Responsibility
3. Board Functions & Structures
4. Regulating Corporate Governance in Australia
5. Accounting Governance: Auditors & Audits
6. Director's Duties & Liabilities
7. Enforcement of Director's Duties
8. The Global Context: Part One
9. The Global Context: Part Two
10. Corporate Governance & Crises
11. Shareholder Activism

12. Ethics & the Future of the Corporation
