Unit description

MRes Year 2 students in the Faculty of Arts will develop their knowledge and experience of research in their chosen discipline via a program of Faculty-level and department activities and assessments. Students will complete two assessed tasks to assist with the design and implementation of an independent research project, the findings from which will be communicated via a 20,000-word, externally examined thesis. Alternatively, students enrolled in the departments of MMCCS or English may be required to produce a creative work and a 10,000-word thesis, which are also externally examined.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Formulate a research question that has the potential to produce new knowledge/ insights within their research field.

ULO2: Research and compose a comprehensive and critical literature review in a specific research area.

ULO3: Conduct independent scholarly research of professional quality in your field or discipline.

ULO4: Use well-developed judgement to undertake research responsibly.

ULO5: Undertake a qualitative or quantitative analysis of the data collected, inclusive of critical reasoning and argumentation.

ULO6: Write and publicly defend a significant research project.

General Assessment Information

All assessments in this unit are dovetailed into the Faculty Master program. Refer to your FOAR8990 guidance and to the Sociology MRes handbook (in iLearn)

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Literature review	5%	Yes	see iLearn
Conference Presentation - Research Frontiers II (RF2)	5%	No	see iLearn
Thesis	90%	Yes	see iLearn

Literature review

Assessment Type <sup>1</sup>: Literature review

Indicative Time on Task <sup>2</sup>: 60 hours

Due: see iLearn

Weighting: 5%

This is a hurdle assessment task (see assessment policy for more information on hurdle assessment tasks)

Three months (or part-time equivalent) after the date of enrolment, students must submit a written review and synthesis of literature relevant to their research project, in accordance with the requirements of their discipline, which will be assessed at department level by the Principal Supervisor and one other member of staff. Candidates will be required to pass this assessment satisfactorily in order to continue in the MRes program.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Formulate a research question that has the potential to produce new knowledge/insights within their research field.
- Research and compose a comprehensive and critical literature review in a specific research area.
- Conduct independent scholarly research of professional quality in your field or discipline.

Conference Presentation - Research Frontiers II (RF2)

Assessment Type <sup>1</sup>: Presentation

Indicative Time on Task <sup>2</sup>: 60 hours

Due: see iLearn

Weighting: 5%

Approximately six months after enrolment (or part-time equivalent), students will be required to give a 10-minute presentation about their research project to the Faculty of Arts Year 2 cohort as part of the RF2 conference in June or November, which will be assessed by either the Associate Dean HDR or Faculty MRes Director, in consultation with the relevant department MRes Director.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Write and publicly defend a significant research project.

Thesis

Indicative Time on Task <sup>2</sup>: 1080 hours

Due: see iLearn

Weighting: 90%

This is a hurdle assessment task (see assessment policy for more information on hurdle assessment tasks)

Students will conduct independent research during their candidature, such as locating, reading and analysing prescribed and additional relevant materials, collecting and analysing data, and producing outputs at various stages, as determined by their Principal supervisor. This will culminate in the completion of a 20,000-word written thesis summarising the research project undertaken or completion of a creative work and 10,000-word written thesis, which will be externally examined by a University approved examination panel. (A 1.5-day, compulsory faculty-led session will take place at the beginning of the year to provide students with information about the program requirements for the year. Some departments may also require their students to attend department-led information sessions. Non-compulsory information sessions and workshops may also be offered by the Faculty or Departments during the year, to provide support for student candidature.)

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Formulate a research question that has the potential to produce new knowledge/insights within their research field.
- Research and compose a comprehensive and critical literature review in a specific research area.

- Conduct independent scholarly research of professional quality in your field or discipline.
- Use well-developed judgement to undertake research responsibly.
- Undertake a qualitative or quantitative analysis of the data collected, inclusive of critical reasoning and argumentation.
- Write and publicly defend a significant research project.
