Session 2 Learning and Teaching Update

The decision has been made to conduct study online for the remainder of Session 2 for all units WITHOUT mandatory on-campus learning activities. Exams for Session 2 will also be online where possible to do so.

This is due to the extension of the lockdown orders and to provide certainty around arrangements for the remainder of Session 2. We hope to return to campus beyond Session 2 as soon as it is safe and appropriate to do so.

Some classes/teaching activities cannot be moved online and must be taught on campus. You should already know if you are in one of these classes/teaching activities and your unit convenor will provide you with more information via iLearn. If you want to confirm, see the list of units with mandatory on-campus classes/teaching activities.

Visit the MQ COVID-19 information page for more detail.

Unit description

This unit will introduce students to core financial and legal aspects of selecting, forming, structuring and running a business. Students will develop an understanding of relevant legal concepts and principles underpinning the regulation of business including corporate management responsibilities. By exposure to key aspects of financial planning, budgeting and capital raising students will be able to make commercially sound choices in relation to starting a business and comparing business structures. At the conclusion of the unit students will have gained a valuable perspective on commencing and running business operations and will have developed an understanding of the planning and financing of a business venture.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Identify key aspects of the commercial legal environment and the Australian corporate legislative framework and distinguish the legal characteristics of differing business organisations.

ULO2: Recognise features of corporate functionality and management issues, including the role and obligations of directors and insolvency regulation.

ULO3: Apply investment and financing concepts to business decisions and critically evaluate financial viability including an exploration of financial models, forecasting capital expenditures, working capital needs and financing events.

ULO4: Analyse sources of funding and financing needs.

General Assessment Information

Late submissions of assignments

Sometimes unavoidable circumstances occur that might prevent you from submitting an assignment on time and, in that case, you may be eligible to lodge a Special Consideration request.

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, please note that no extensions to assignment deadlines will be granted. Assignments that are submitted late will attract a late penalty:

1. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late.
2. No assignment will be accepted more than 72 hours after the due date and time (incl. weekends) after the original due date.
3. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments (e.g., quizzes, online tests) or for tasks with a weighting of 10% or less of the total unit assessment.

The information provided in this Unit Guide may be amended with additional or updated information and detail in relation to assessment and the unit generally. Any updates will be available on iLearn.

Delivery and Resources

Classes will progress through the various Lecture Areas referred to in this Unit Guide. There may be some reorganisation, overlapping, and/or integration of areas to accommodate assessment and unit structure. The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: <http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>.

Required Texts

Law Text: Quilter, Company Law Perspectives, 4th ed. 2020, Thomson Reuters (Lawbook Co.) – [referred to as CLP 4th ed]. CLP 4th ed will be available in the Macquarie University library. It can be purchased directly from the publishers Thomson Reuters via their website:

<https://legal.thomsonreuters.com.au/student/university/macquarie/>

Finance Text: Berk, J., DeMarzo P., Harford J., Ford, G., and Mollica, V., Fundamentals of Corporate Finance, 3rd Australian Edition, 2017, Pearson Australia.

Students should take responsibility for their own learning and this will incorporate reading as required, attendance at seminars, developing effective study strategies, reflection on their abilities, and a task oriented approach to assessment – that is, do not think solely about gathering information - think about what will be required - what makes for successful performance in tests and assignments - and how you will use the material you have studied. Students should be ready to allocate at least 150 hours during session time for ACCG2002. This includes all seminars, assessment tasks and personal study.
