Unit description
This unit focuses on general principles of research and the use of research methods in language studies. It covers the whole process of research from choosing a topic, searching the related literature on the topic, and formulating research questions, to collecting and analysing data and writing up research reports. The exploration of quantitative, qualitative, mixed-methods, discourse analysis and corpus linguistics methodologies develops students' research literacy to understand research reports and to design research projects. Research ethics and writing up a formal research proposal are two other components of this unit.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- ULO1: Identify and communicate a research topic to a professional audience
- ULO2: Critically review and synthesise published literature related to the topic of your proposed research and communicate with a professional audience
- ULO3: Explain the basic underlying principles of five broad research approaches in applied language studies: quantitative research, qualitative research, mixed-methods research, discourse analysis, and corpus linguistics
- ULO4: Conceive, formulate and operationalise research questions/hypotheses relating to an area of language-related research
- ULO5: Creatively design and present a formal written research proposal for an original small-scale study in an area of language study

General Assessment Information
1. All assessment due dates and times refer to local time in Sydney, Australia
2. Full instructions for each assignment, together with marking criteria and instructions for submission, will be available on iLearn
3. Extensions for assignments can be sought by applying for special consideration via ask.mq.edu.au - please advise the unit convenor as well if you have submitted a request for special consideration
4. Assignments submitted late without an extension may be penalised at 5% of the total marks available for the assignment per day late

Assessment Task 1: Annotated Bibliography

Assessment Type 1: Annotated bibliography
Indicative Time on Task 2: 25 hours
Due: Week 7
Weighting: 30%

Students will choose a topic and search databases and library resources to select relevant published articles to write an annotated bibliography (1500 words).

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and communicate a research topic to a professional audience
- Critically review and synthesise published literature related to the topic of your proposed research and communicate with a professional audience
- Explain the basic underlying principles of five broad research approaches in applied language studies: quantitative research, qualitative research, mixed-methods research, discourse analysis, and corpus linguistics

Active Participation

Assessment Type 1: Participatory task
Indicative Time on Task 2: 15 hours
Due: Progressively throughout the semester
Weighting: 20%

Students are required to participate actively in online discussions as well as complete learning tasks.
activities progressively in the interactive text.

On successful completion you will be able to:
- Critically review and synthesise published literature related to the topic of your proposed research and communicate with a professional audience
- Explain the basic underlying principles of five broad research approaches in applied language studies: quantitative research, qualitative research, mixed-methods research, discourse analysis, and corpus linguistics
- Creatively design and present a formal written research proposal for an original small-scale study in an area of language study

Research Topic Presentation
Assessment Type 1: Presentation
Indicative Time on Task 2: 10 hours
Due: Week 10
Weighting: 10%

Each student will prepare an 8-10 minute PowerPoint presentation on their chosen research topic and present it in class or online.

On successful completion you will be able to:
- Identify and communicate a research topic to a professional audience
- Critically review and synthesise published literature related to the topic of your proposed research and communicate with a professional audience
- Conceive, formulate and operationalise research questions/hypotheses relating to an area of language-related research

Research Proposal
Assessment Type 1: Plan
Indicative Time on Task 2: 30 hours
Due: Week 14
Weighting: 40%

Students will write a formal written literature review and research proposal for a small-scale study in an area of language-related research (2500 words)
On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically review and synthesise published literature related to the topic of your proposed research and communicate with a professional audience
- Explain the basic underlying principles of five broad research approaches in applied language studies: quantitative research, qualitative research, mixed-methods research, discourse analysis, and corpus linguistics
- Conceive, formulate and operationalise research questions/hypotheses relating to an area of language-related research
- Creatively design and present a formal written research proposal for an original small-scale study in an area of language study

1 If you need help with your assignment, please contact:

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Learning Skills Unit for academic skills support.

2 Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Delivery

APPL8020 will be available both externally (online) and internally (on campus). A weekly on-campus lecture-seminar will be held in 01 Central Courtyard Room 205 on Mondays from 3 PM - 5 PM. These sessions will be live-streamed on Zoom, and will also be recorded for all students to access during the semester.

The iLearn site for APPL8020 will contain details of assessment tasks, weekly readings, discussion forums, lecture slides and additional resources.

Readings

The prescribed textbook is Research Methods in Language Study: A Top Hat Interactive Text designed specifically for this unit. Below are instructions for purchasing and accessing the book.

How do you get the book? 1. Click on this link: https://app.tophat.com/e/172208 2. Sign-up for a Top Hat online account ($14.00) 3. Follow the prompts to access the textbook ($50.00)

If you need any assistance with setting up your account or downloading your interactive text, please see these Support Articles to help:
• Watch this video for a quick start guide
• Learn more about Top Hat’s iOS App
• Learn more about Top Hat’s Android App
• Managing your Account Settings
• Learn tips for success and how to use your textbook

Your textbook will be applied at checkout for the total cost of $64.00.

Weekly readings to accompany the lectures will also be provided through the Macquarie University Library (via Leganto on the APPL8020 iLearn site)
