Unit description

This unit will examine the terminology and concepts relevant to the Project Based Management Approach. It will also explore issues faced by organisations in carrying out projects, and project management competency. There will be a focus on the integrative process of project management, and the key project management knowledge areas as described in the Global Project Management Framework adopted by the Project Management Institute (PMI), Australian Institute of Project Management (AIPM), and the International Project Management Association (IPMA). The knowledge and insights gained from this unit will position you well to succeed in managing and executing projects, as well as in employing various project management techniques.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Identify and describe a range of Project Based Management theories.

ULO2: Apply theory and frameworks to assess operational, tactical and strategic decisions.

ULO3: Integrate contemporary issues into Project Based management decisions.

ULO4: Develop skills in Project Based management and governance in cross functional multi-disciplinary projects in organisations.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Policy:

Late assessment submissions must be submitted through the appropriate submission link in iLearn. No extensions will be granted unless an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late. Late submissions will not be accepted after solutions have been discussed and/or made available.

Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

Examination: Please see Assessment Policy Schedule 4. If students do not sit an exam, 0 (zero) marks are awarded for this assessment.

The only exception to not sitting an examination at the designated time in the University Examination Timetable is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption. In these circumstances you may wish to consider applying for special consideration.

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.
