Unit description

The study of public policy has traditionally been focused on the nation-state, and policy-making activities at the domestic level. However, national policy-makers are increasingly focused on international policy challenges. Using a series of detailed case studies, this unit reflects critically on debates around globalisation and the state. The unit introduces students to the policy process and explores the impact of international institutions, interests and ideas on domestic policy-making. The unit examines direct and indirect, coercive and voluntary mechanisms of policy transfer, diffusion and mobility, as well as the factors that shape patterns of intergovernmental cooperation and coordination.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Demonstrate a critical understanding of the various theoretical perspectives on the impact of globalisation on the role of the State.

ULO2: Describe the policy-making process and identify points at which international factors impact on domestic policy capacity.

ULO4: Describe the various mechanisms through which policy is transferred from one jurisdiction to another.

ULO3: Explain the roles played by institutions and actors, both domestic and international, in the policy process.

ULO5: Locate, assess and analyse relevant evidence and information related to public policy in the national and international spheres.

General Assessment Information

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests. The criteria and standards for each assignment will be made available via iLearn.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Participation	30%	No	Tuesday 5pm - weeks 3-10.

- Locate, assess and analyse relevant evidence and information related to public policy in the national and international spheres.

Class Tests

Assessment Type ¹: Quiz/Test

Indicative Time on Task ²: 15 hours

Due: Test 1: Thurs 1 April; Test 2: Thurs 3 June

Weighting: 20%

Quizzes based on class readings – see ilearn for details.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Describe the policy-making process and identify points at which international factors impact on domestic policy capacity.
- Describe the various mechanisms through which policy is transferred from one jurisdiction to another.
- Explain the roles played by institutions and actors, both domestic and international, in the policy process.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

There is no text book for this unit. All essential readings will be provided through the unit's Leganto page (or links on ilearn). Students will need to conduct some of their own research online and/ or in the library to complete assessment tasks.

Lectures

All lectures will be recorded and available via ilearn. However, on Thursday of Week 1, a zoom lecture commencing at 12pm (see ilearn for link) will cover the administrative aspects/ outline of the unit, with an opportunity for students to ask questions. This lecture/discussion will also be recorded, and will be available to view soon after the class

Tutorials:

External and OUA students are expected to participate in the unit discussion board (ilearn) each week. External and OUA students will be able to complete all tasks off campus.
