Unit description

This unit focusses on non-traditional security threats and challenges. It introduces students to the concepts of securitization and human security. It then assesses a range of non-traditional security threats, addressing the risks and dangers associated with them, as well as discussing ways to manage them. Students will examine areas such as global terrorism, insurgencies, transnational organized crime, the international arms trade, environmental security, population and refugees, poverty and development, global health, energy security and the challenges for Australia.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Analyse non-traditional security issues that the world is facing based on a clear understanding of the breadth and depth of such issues.

ULO2: Demonstrate critical and empirical awareness of the complexity and diversity of security threats and risks of a non-traditional nature that the world faces.

ULO3: Evaluate the scholarship on key non-traditional security issues.

ULO4: Apply the skills in information literacy to appropriately locate, evaluate and use relevant information on non-traditional security issues.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Engagement	10%	No	On-going
Tests	10%	No	12 pm: 20 Mar (Wk 4), 1 May (Wk 8), 5 Jun (Wk 13)
Minor Essay	20%	No	28 March (Week 5)
Major Essay	60%	No	23 May (Week 11)

Engagement

Assessment Type ¹: Participatory task

Indicative Time on Task ²: 12 hours

Due: On-going

Weighting: 10%

Internal students are required to attend all tutorials, where engagement marks are awarded. External students are required to engage actively in the weekly online discussion forums. Engagement marks are awarded for participating in the online discussions.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse non-traditional security issues that the world is facing based on a clear understanding of the breadth and depth of such issues.
- Demonstrate critical and empirical awareness of the complexity and diversity of security threats and risks of a non-traditional nature that the world faces.
- Evaluate the scholarship on key non-traditional security issues.

Tests

Assessment Type ¹: Quiz/Test

Indicative Time on Task ²: 13 hours

Due: 12 pm: 20 Mar (Wk 4), 1 May (Wk 8), 5 Jun (Wk 13)

Weighting: 10%

The tests are designed to test student understanding of the lectures and assigned reading materials.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate critical and empirical awareness of the complexity and diversity of security threats and risks of a non-traditional nature that the world faces.

Minor Essay

Assessment Type ¹: Essay

Indicative Time on Task ²: 13 hours

Due: 28 March (Week 5)

Weighting: 20%

The purpose of this assignment is to help students develop the necessary skills in critically reviewing academic work that they read. The minor essay is a review of an academic article from the designated list of articles (marked with an asterisk * in ilearn).

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse non-traditional security issues that the world is facing based on a clear understanding of the breadth and depth of such issues.
- Demonstrate critical and empirical awareness of the complexity and diversity of security threats and risks of a non-traditional nature that the world faces.
- Evaluate the scholarship on key non-traditional security issues.
- Apply the skills in information literacy to appropriately locate, evaluate and use relevant information on non-traditional security issues.

Major Essay

Assessment Type ¹: Essay

Indicative Time on Task ²: 50 hours

Due: 23 May (Week 11)

Weighting: 60%

The major essay is a substantive piece of work that answers any of the tutorial questions.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse non-traditional security issues that the world is facing based on a clear understanding of the breadth and depth of such issues.
- Demonstrate critical and empirical awareness of the complexity and diversity of security threats and risks of a non-traditional nature that the world faces.
- Evaluate the scholarship on key non-traditional security issues.
- Apply the skills in information literacy to appropriately locate, evaluate and use relevant information on non-traditional security issues.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Special Consideration (previously known as “Disruption to Study”)

Please note that students who miss tutorials or require extensions for any assignment must apply through the formal university process known as “Special Consideration.” Convenors and tutors are not allowed to grant tutorial waivers or assignment waivers; students must apply formally through Special Consideration with the appropriate documentation.

Engagement: Ongoing assessment

For internal students, attendance and engagement in the weekly seminar is expected. A minimum attendance in 10 seminars is required. Engagement involves demonstrating, through oral activities and assignments, critical thinking and understanding of the required readings, as well as demonstrated ability to address the major themes and questions raised in unit materials.

For external / OUA students, the recordings of the lectures will be posted and engagement through at minimum 10 online forums is required. Engagement in the online forums must be completed by the assigned date. Participation will not be counted beyond the allocated time-frame. Grades are dependent on such criteria as stated in the engagement rubric.

Submission of Assignments

All assignments must be submitted electronically by the due date via the appropriate assignment link in ilearn. Note that no assignment can be marked if submitted more than 7 calendar days after the deadline unless Special Consideration has been granted.

Late Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a penalty for lateness will apply (see iLearn for details on this). No assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.
