Unit description

This unit examines the practice of photography across diverse cultural contexts and media platforms. It will introduce critical debates about the practice of photography and a number of key themes in the history of photography. The unit will consider a range of genres, texts and practices including snapshots and online photo sharing, family albums, photography as art and photojournalism. The unit will include the following topics: street photography and ethics; the photograph as evidence and instrument of organisation; domestic photography and amateurism; photography and otherness; and the place of photography in contemporary digital media cultures.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: identify key themes, ideas and concepts in theories of photography.

ULO2: distinguish between and critically evaluate theoretical positions on photographic practices and texts.

ULO3: analyse and critically evaluate photographs according to themes, genres, and forms.

ULO4: communicate narratives and ideas through the combination of photographs and text

ULO5: evidence engagement with and reflection on contemporary photographic media.

General Assessment Information

Late submission / Special Consideration

Special Consideration: If you have experienced an unavoidable and serious disruption and are unable to complete a task by the due date, please request Special Consideration via ask.mq.edu.au. For more information about the Special Consideration process please click here.

Late Submission: Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – two (2) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Grades: In line with the Macquarie University Assessment Policy, grades align with the descriptors available here.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Photo essay and reflection	50%	No	Week 9 see iLearn for more detail
Online quizzes	25%	No	Week 5 and Week 12 See iLearn for more detail
Online reflections	25%	No	Week 2-13 see iLearn for more details

Assessment Type ¹: Creative work

Indicative Time on Task ²: 40 hours

Due: Week 9 see iLearn for more detail

Weighting: 50%

The photo essay assignment gives you the opportunity to make connections between the theory and practice of photography. Students will not be assessed on technical photographic skills but rather on their understanding of the genre of the photo essay, their ability to communicate a clear narrative in the photo essay, the creativity of their response and the clarity of the accompanying writing. Students will also provide a reflection on the process of producing a photo essay. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- identify key themes, ideas and concepts in theories of photography.
- communicate narratives and ideas through the combination of photographs and text
- evidence engagement with and reflection on contemporary photographic media.

Online quizzes

Assessment Type ¹: Quiz/Test

Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: Week 5 and Week 12 See iLearn for more detail

Weighting: 25%

During semester there will be two quizzes that will be accessed via iLearn. The quizzes will require students to answer a series of questions relating to the key readings, lecture content and photographic examples from the unit. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- identify key themes, ideas and concepts in theories of photography.
- distinguish between and critically evaluate theoretical positions on photographic practices and texts.
- evidence engagement with and reflection on contemporary photographic media.

Online reflections

Assessment Type ¹: Reflective Writing

Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: Week 2-13 see iLearn for more details

Weighting: 25%

Each week students will be asked to write a short reflection responding to a prompt/question related to the weekly topic and readings, and post it to iLearn ahead of the tutorial. At the end of the semester students will write a final reflection outlining how their understanding of photography has been developed or shaped by readings, photographs or photographers discussed in the unit. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- identify key themes, ideas and concepts in theories of photography.
- distinguish between and critically evaluate theoretical positions on photographic practices and texts.
- analyse and critically evaluate photographs according to themes, genres, and forms.
- evidence engagement with and reflection on contemporary photographic media.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Delivery

Lectures begin in Week 1. All lectures for this unit are online-only. Lectures are pre-recorded and will be available on iLearn at the beginning of each week.

Tutorials begin in Week 2 and the final tutorial is in Week 12. There is no lecture or tutorial in Week 13.

Please see timetable and iLearn for further details about delivery.

Resources

Required and recommended readings and viewings are available via the Leganto link on iLearn.

Feedback

During the semester you will receive feedback in many forms. Sometimes this feedback will be verbal and informal and will come from your tutor such as during tutorials when you offer up ideas or questions. At times your tutor will also offer more general feedback about the group's progress during tutorials. At other times feedback will be more formal, in the case of written feedback on your photo essay, or feedback on correct responses to questions in the online quiz.

You will also receive valuable feedback from your peers throughout the semester. This may take the form of written comments via tutorial forums on iLearn, or during small group activities during tutorials.
