Session 2 Learning and Teaching Update

The decision has been made to conduct study online for the remainder of Session 2 for all units WITHOUT mandatory on-campus learning activities. Exams for Session 2 will also be online where possible to do so.

This is due to the extension of the lockdown orders and to provide certainty around arrangements for the remainder of Session 2. We hope to return to campus beyond Session 2 as soon as it is safe and appropriate to do so.

Some classes/teaching activities cannot be moved online and must be taught on campus. You should already know if you are in one of these classes/teaching activities and your unit convenor will provide you with more information via iLearn. If you want to confirm, see the list of units with mandatory on-campus classes/teaching activities.

Visit the MQ COVID-19 information page for more detail.

Unit description
Marketing is the coordinated and integrated efforts of an organisation to satisfy relevant customer needs and achieve organisational goals. It involves a systematic process whereby opportunities are identified and marketing practices are implemented. New techniques, tools and technologies are constantly being adopted by marketers, leading to a new marketing environment that demands greater efficiency and effectiveness to market products, services and brands. This unit develops students’ knowledge of marketing concepts and frameworks. Students will develop skills to apply marketing concepts to address marketing issues. Students will also learn to apply marketing concepts to analyse marketing activities of a product/service.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://students.mq.edu.au/important-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Explain the concepts and principles which underpin the discipline of marketing.
ULO2: Analyse and apply marketing concepts in dealing with practical marketing issues.
ULO3: Apply marketing concepts to analyse marketing activities of a product/service
General Assessment Information

Late submission of assignments

Sometimes unavoidable circumstances occur that might prevent you from submitting an assignment on time and, in that case, you may be eligible to lodge a Special Consideration request.

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, please note that no extensions to assignment deadlines will be granted. Assignments that are submitted late will attract a late penalty:

1. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late.
2. No assignment will be accepted more than 72 hours after the due date and time (incl. weekends) after the original due date.
3. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments (e.g., quizzes, online tests) or for tasks with a weighting of 10% or less of the total unit assessment.

In-class tasks completed during weekly workshops are to reinforce your learning and give you the opportunity to share your theoretical and practical knowledge of marketing concepts, principles and issues. There will be four random collections across the session. Each task is worth 5%.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Explain the concepts and principles which underpin the discipline of marketing.
• Analyse and apply marketing concepts in dealing with practical marketing issues.

1 If you need help with your assignment, please contact:

• the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
• the Learning Skills Unit for academic skills support.

2 Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

TEACHING DELIVERY

The unit is purely online delivery. It will include in a combination of pre-recorded weekly lectures (1.5 hours) and online weekly workshops (1.5 hours).

Students are expected to be active and engaged learners, contributing fully to workshop activities and discussions.

Students need to listen to the pre-recorded lectures, read in advance of workshop sessions, complete preparatory work including weekly online quizzes, and be prepared to work in small groups and discuss the materials assigned each week.

The lecture slides and recordings will be posted on iLearn on a weekly basis. Students will need to complete the weekly online quizzes before they can access the seminar materials.

SATISFACTORY COMPLETION OF UNIT

Students are required to accumulate at least 50% of the total marks possible in order to satisfactorily pass this unit.

TECHNOLOGY USED & REQUIRED
The course will make use of iLearn and email for communication with the teaching staff and between students.

- Students will need access to a reliable Internet service to complete this unit.
