Unit description

Firms that offer multifaceted products, services and customer solutions must strategically manage their salesforce to explain and validate the value of their offerings to potential B2B and B2C customers. Strategic sales management is critical to a firm's success because skilful sales managers guide and coach the sales force to connect with customers, align their sales goals with buyer objectives, and ethically respond to their technical/non-technical enquiries.

This unit focuses on developing students' capacity to analyse and apply theories and concepts underpinning strategic sales management. This unit focuses on advancing students' skill to manage long-term relationships with customers/clients through face-to-face seller-buyer communications and technology-mediated communications. This unit will develop students' skills to design a strategic plan to manage sales activities from the opening to closing stages of the sales. This unit will equip students with the skills to evaluate and apply ethical and social issues associated with strategic sales management.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Analyse and apply theories and concepts underpinning strategic sales management.

ULO2: Assess and select sales strategies that support long-term relationships with customers through face-to-face and technology-mediated communications.

ULO3: Design a strategic sales management plan.

ULO4: Evaluate and apply ethical and social issues associated with strategic sales management.

General Assessment Information

Late assessment submissions must also be submitted through the appropriate submission link in iLearn. No extensions will be granted unless an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late. Late submissions will not be accepted after solutions have been discussed and/or made available.

Note: Further information on submitting an Application for Special Consideration can be found at https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Participatory task	20%	No	Week 1 - Week 13
Sales Process Role-Playing (individual)	40%	No	Week 7
Strategic Sales plan (individual)	40%	No	Week 13

Participatory task

Assessment Type 1: Participatory task Indicative Time on Task 2: 17 hours

Due: Week 1 - Week 13

Weighting: 20%

Workshop activities give you the opportunities to internalise your learning. These activities also allow you to engage in discussions with your peers and share your thoughts, help you explain your points of view, and develop not only your own knowledge, but also assist your fellow classmates to gain a better understanding of the topic of discussion. Weekly in-class group activities worth 2% of overall 20% marks assigned to this assignment and will be presented to the class in form of oral or written.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse and apply theories and concepts underpinning strategic sales management.
- Assess and select sales strategies that support long-term relationships with customers through face-to-face and technology-mediated communications.

- Design a strategic sales management plan.
- Evaluate and apply ethical and social issues associated with strategic sales management.

Sales Process Role-Playing (individual)
