Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: 31 May 2022

Weighting: 40%

This is a hurdle assessment task (see assessment policy for more information on hurdle assessment tasks)

The examination comprises questions where candidates are required to apply standards to account for and report on a diverse range of business transactions and events. Pre-release information is made available prior to the exam.

All CA assessments need to be completed and final assessment/subject must be passed to pass the unit.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Apply International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) to account for complex business transactions and events
- Prepare financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) or local equivalents, and applicable accounting regulation
- Evaluate and respond appropriately to complex ethical issues in the context of financial reporting

CA - Preparation of financial statements

Assessment Type ¹: Case study/analysis

Indicative Time on Task ²: 25 hours

Due: See My Capability Learn for details

Weighting: 30%

Candidates are provided with a pre-release scenario relating to a listed group. Detailed information about three entities in the group are provided to candidates.

Part A – online assessment activity

Candidates are tasked with preparing calculations and journal entries for a range of transactions to assist in finalising the draft financial statements for two of the entities in the pre-release scenario information.

Questions in the online assessment will assess candidates' ability to correctly prepare the calculation and journal entries to assist in finalising the draft financial statements. Questions will also assess candidate understanding of how the financial statements will be impacted.

Part B – written submission

Candidates are required to prepare a file note in relation to current and potential future reporting implications arising from a transaction or event for the third entity in the pre-release scenario, including providing guidance on ethically appropriate alternatives.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Apply International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) to account for complex business transactions and events
- Prepare financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) or local equivalents, and applicable accounting regulation
- Evaluate future developments that impact the financial reporting environment
- Evaluate and respond appropriately to complex ethical issues in the context of financial reporting

CA - Online assessment activity

Assessment Type ¹: Quiz/Test

Indicative Time on Task ²: 15 hours

Due: See My Capability Learn for details

Weighting: 10%

Finalising financial statements activity:

Candidates will need to evaluate the information provided for each question, apply the relevant accounting and/or ethical standards, and use their professional judgement.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Apply International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) to account for complex business transactions and events
- Prepare financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) or local equivalents, and applicable accounting regulation

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment

- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Required and Recommended Texts and/or Materials

Prescribed Reference Materials

CA Program: Financial Accounting and Reporting – provided by CAANZ

Module Topic Notes (in powerpoint format) - to be downloaded each week from iLearn.

Australian standards Chartered Accountants Australia New Zealand 2021, Financial Reporting Handbook 2021 (Australia), John Wiley & Sons Australia, Milton QLD This textbook refers to local standards applicable in Australia. These Standards are accessible on the AASB website (<https://www.aasb.gov.au>). Candidates may also use the International Standards.

- Course material is available on the learning management system (iLearn)
- The web page for this unit can be found at: <http://ilearn.mq.edu.au>

Learning and Teaching Activities

Each class will meet as described in the unit schedule. All scheduled classes are compulsory. In between classes, students are required to work through the relevant sections of the course as well as work on assessment tasks.

Students are expected to fully study the course material and recommended readings prior to each class. You are encouraged to properly construct your own notes based on your reading, any additional comments, and supplements.

Each class will consist of an overview and discussion of the main content, concepts and issues. In addition, other activities will take place that seek to enhance and enrich understanding of the content, the readings and any accounting standards related to each module. This will include working through questions in the CPA material and discussing articles or actual financial statements that help demonstrate the topic more fully.

Students will be provided with materials related to the topic by the lecturer (which will be placed on iLearn), however it is important to understand that these are only intended to be used as an overview and guide.

Technology Used and Required

Students will need access to Microsoft Excel, Word and Powerpoint to enable completion of various assessment tasks throughout the session.

In addition students will require access to the internet, including specifically access to iLearn.
