Unit description

This unit is offered on a pass/fail basis and designed for students who wish to complement their academic program through a short-term residential program relevant to their target language in International Studies: Languages and Cultures. This unit facilitates study at a partner university where intensive learning will take place in the student's target language and in regards to a topic relevant to their discipline. The program of study at the overseas institution will be approved and promoted by the Department of International Studies in collaboration with Macquarie International. The short period of intensive study is intended for students already studying a language at Macquarie, ideally those who are taking or have completed the introductory level(s). Participants will be selected for the program based on their application, suitability, and the relevance of the program to their degree.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: identify that language and culture interact, and relate that interaction to real-word situations and problems.

ULO2: show awareness of differences and similarities between language use in their native language or culture and the target language or culture, as well as thoughtful understandings of how to negotiate difficulties that arise during cross-cultural and/or cross-linguistic interactions

ULO3: increase their ability to clearly express, detail, defend, and/or promote ideas in public situations, through their native language and/or target language

ULO4: participate in diverse communities and collaborate with others on tasks.

General Assessment Information

Lateness penalties do not apply for in-country placements extending beyond session 3 dates. In all other cases, the critical reflection must be submitted by the deadline or lateness penalties will apply.

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

*This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Intensive Immersive Course	60%	No	22/01/2023
Critical Reflection	40%	No	22/01/2023

Intensive Immersive Course

Assessment Type ¹: Participatory task

Indicative Time on Task ²: 70 hours

Due: 22/01/2023

Weighting: 60%

Students are required to satisfactorily complete the components of their approved program of study. The backup supplementary task for this assessment task must be an equivalent program or experience, arranged by the student with the host institution.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- identify that language and culture interact, and relate that interaction to real-world situations and problems.
- show awareness of differences and similarities between language use in their native language or culture and the target language or culture, as well as thoughtful understandings of how to negotiate difficulties that arise during cross-cultural and/or cross-linguistic interactions
- increase their ability to clearly express, detail, defend, and/or promote ideas in public situations, through their native language and/or target language
- participate in diverse communities and collaborate with others on tasks.

Critical Reflection

Assessment Type ¹: Media presentation

Indicative Time on Task ²: 10 hours

Due: 22/01/2023

Weighting: 40%

Students will produce a video wherein they discuss and reflect upon their experiences during the placement. The video should touch on an issue relating to what the student has learned, how they overcame challenges, how the experience related to their overall program of study, and the ways in which they will employ what they learned in the future study and/or community engagement. Additionally, students should discuss their preparation for the experience, and how this impacted their time at the host institution. The backup supplementary task for this assessment task is a travel diary discussing the experience.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- identify that language and culture interact, and relate that interaction to real-world situations and problems.
- show awareness of differences and similarities between language use in their native language or culture and the target language or culture, as well as thoughtful understandings of how to negotiate difficulties that arise during cross-cultural and/or cross-linguistic interactions
- increase their ability to clearly express, detail, defend, and/or promote ideas in public situations, through their native language and/or target language

- participate in diverse communities and collaborate with others on tasks.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation
