Prerequisites

Exchange-based programs: completion of 130cp, intermediate language level, WAM of 65, and permission by special approval. Students with a WAM below 65 (but at least 60) may be eligible for INTS3000 if they achieve a WAM of 65 in their specialisation language units.

Corequisites

Co-badged status

Unit description

This unit is a core requirement of the Bachelor of International Studies (BIS) and is offered on a pass/fail basis. Completion of this unit is generally through an immersive program taken primarily in the language and culture of the student's BIS specialisation. Students who do not meet the entry criteria for exchange-based INTS3000 programs may be eligible for a modified program. Alternatives to undertaking an exchange program are available where undertaking exchange is not possible (for documented, unavoidable, and serious reasons). To be eligible to enrol in INTS3000, students will need to complete INTS3000 application milestones and demonstrate clear degree progression criteria related to WAM and intermediate or above language outcomes. More information on these milestones and criteria will be communicated to BIS students via student email in their first session of enrolment. Students must ensure they are aware of the requirements and must ensure that they begin the application process for INTS3000 at least one year in advance.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: express nuanced understandings of how language and culture interact, and evidence ability to apply language to solving real-world tasks.

ULO2: show awareness of differences and similarities between language use in their native language or culture and the target language or culture, as well as thoughtful understandings of how to negotiate difficulties that arise during cross-cultural and/or cross-linguistic interactions

ULO3: increase their ability to clearly express, detail, defend, and/or promote ideas in public situations, through their native language and/or target language

ULO4: skilfully interact and/or work with others to accomplish complex tasks, identify the dynamics present within diverse groups and use intercultural knowledge to strategically engage with other actors to enhance communities.

General Assessment Information

Please note that the University and the Faculty of Arts have launched a new assessment policy effective as of 1 July 2021. This new policy particularly affects LATE SUBMISSION OF ASSESSMENTS.

The Faculty policy in relation to late assessment submissions is as follows:

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – 10 marks out of 100 credit will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted seven days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests, etc.

To be very clear:

- Unless you have applied for special consideration and had your application approved, for each day your assignment is late, 10 marks will be deducted. For example, if you submit your assignment 7 days late, 70 marks will be deducted, which means you will fail that assignment.
- If your assignment is more than 7 days late (including weekends), you will get 0 marks for your assignment.

These are serious penalties that will substantially alter your final grade and even determine whether you pass or fail this unit. Please make every effort to submit your assignment by the due date.

If you find you cannot submit your assignment on time, please apply for Special Consideration through AskMQ. Make sure you read Macquarie University's policy regarding Special Consideration requests before you apply: <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/assessment-exams/special-consideration>

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Intensive Immersive Course	80%	No	Ongoing
Critical Reflection	20%	No	17:00 on 5/6/22

Intensive Immersive Course

Assessment Type ¹: Participatory task

Indicative Time on Task ²: 400 hours

Due: Ongoing

Weighting: 80%

Students are required to satisfactorily complete the components of their approved program of study. The backup supplementary task for this assessment task must be an equivalent program or experience, arranged by the student with the host institution, or with degree coordinator when applicable.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- express nuanced understandings of how language and culture interact, and evidence ability to apply language to solving real-world tasks.
- show awareness of differences and similarities between language use in their native language or culture and the target language or culture, as well as thoughtful understandings of how to negotiate difficulties that arise during cross-cultural and/or cross-linguistic interactions
- increase their ability to clearly express, detail, defend, and/or promote ideas in public situations, through their native language and/or target language
- skilfully interact and/or work with others to accomplish complex tasks, identify the dynamics present within diverse groups and use intercultural knowledge to strategically engage with other actors to enhance communities.

Critical Reflection

Assessment Type ¹: Media presentation

Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: 17:00 on 5/6/22

Weighting: 20%

Students will produce a video wherein they discuss and reflect upon their experiences during the placement. The video should touch on an issue relating to what the student has learned, how they overcame challenges, how the experience related to their overall program of study, and the ways in which they will employ what they learned in the future study and/or community engagement. The backup supplementary task for this assessment task is a diary discussing the experience.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- express nuanced understandings of how language and culture interact, and evidence ability to apply language to solving real-world tasks.
- show awareness of differences and similarities between language use in their native language or culture and the target language or culture, as well as thoughtful understandings of how to negotiate difficulties that arise during cross-cultural and/or cross-linguistic interactions
- increase their ability to clearly express, detail, defend, and/or promote ideas in public situations, through their native language and/or target language
- skilfully interact and/or work with others to accomplish complex tasks, identify the dynamics present within diverse groups and use intercultural knowledge to strategically engage with other actors to enhance communities.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

In 2022, this unit is running a replacement program in lieu of the 40cp exchange. Students will not enrol in INTS3000 this year, but will instead enrol in a suite of units as per communications from the Overseas Studies Advisor and Program Director via email. Please note that information provided to you by the Overseas Studies Advisor and Program Director via email and iLearn contains information regarding updated unit content (including replacement units for INTS3000), assessment, and completion requirements. Please ensure you check your emails and iLearn regularly for important information on the program.
