This unit aims to enable students to become independent users of the Spanish language. It seeks to develop students' skills in reading, writing, comprehension and speaking in Spanish at an advanced level and provides students with an opportunity to study Spanish and Latin American cultures extensively. The unit aims to bring students' language skills to B2+/towards C1 level in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Through engagement with the Spanish language in a range of contexts, the unit invites you to develop the ability to - understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in their field of specialization.

- interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party.
- produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
