Unit description
This unit examines the principles of civil and criminal procedure in New South Wales. The unit canvasses general principles of civil procedure, such as pre-trial procedures, the nature of adversarial disputation, ethics of practice and a critical evaluation of the administration of justice, as well as select topics in criminal procedure, such as classification of offences, bail and sentencing.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Explain and apply the principles and stages of civil and criminal procedure
ULO2: Display elementary legal advocacy skills
ULO3: Apply statutory interpretation to problems of civil and criminal procedural law
ULO4: Communicate an integrated body of procedural law knowledge both orally and in ULO5: Analyse civil and criminal procedural law in its historical, social and legal context

General Assessment Information

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – 10 marks out of 100 credit will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted seven days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments - e.g. quizzes, online tests.

All assessments are submitted electronically. Turnitin plagiarism detection software is used to check all written assessments.

Students should carefully check that they submit the correct file for an assessment as no re-submissions will be accepted after the due date and time, including instances where students upload an incorrect file in error.

Word limits are strictly applied. Work above the word limit will not be marked. Footnotes are to be used only for referencing. Referencing must conform to the requirements set out in the Australian Guide to Legal Citation.
