Unit description

This unit introduces students to fundamentals of fiction film-making. It offers students the opportunity to develop capacities to: produce, direct, design, shoot, edit, or sound design fictional narratives. As part of a film crew students begin to develop a sense of their own creative affinities. The unit aims to activate their aesthetic judgment and contribute to the cohesive collaborative production of screen stories and ideas.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: research and plan for the realisation of a short media production.

ULO2: identify, articulate or develop screen ideas and contribute to conveying them effectively in a short media production.

ULO3: apply practical, technical, creative and theoretical skills in screen production through execution of a role such as producing, directing, development, production management, first assistant directing, cinematography, production design, sound design or editing.

ULO4: collaborate effectively in the realisation of a short fiction film and work to production deadlines.

ULO5: synthesize and evaluate theoretical concepts in screen media to reflect on one's own and others' work in screen media.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.

Creative work 1 Online

Assessment Type ¹: Creative work

Indicative Time on Task ²: 35 hours

Due: 11:55 pm on 17/02/2022

Weighting: 35%

Video Essay Make a 4-minute (maximum) video essay consolidating and communicating your ideas about, and independent research into, a film crew role. Use images, sounds, quotes and clips to describe the key creative actions of your role. Include expert insights drawn from your research into the creative responsibilities and opportunities of the role. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- research and plan for the realisation of a short media production.
- identify, articulate or develop screen ideas and contribute to conveying them effectively in a short media production.
- apply practical, technical, creative and theoretical skills in screen production through execution of a role such as producing, directing, development, production management, first assistant directing, cinematography, production design, sound design or editing.
- synthesize and evaluate theoretical concepts in screen media to reflect on one's own and others' work in screen media.

Creative work 2

Assessment Type 1: Creative work

Indicative Time on Task 2: 65 hours

Due: 06:00 pm on 04/11/2022

Weighting: 50%

Working in a designated role in production crews (or individually if participating remotely), students script, produce, direct, design, shoot, edit, and sound design a short (approximately 5 minute) fiction film to create a work suitable for their portfolios. Through this task students develop and demonstrate capacities for coherent and compelling onscreen storytelling. Students develop their projects through successive stages of pre-production, production, and post-production, and also demonstrate ability to critically assess their own and others work. Final submission includes a 250 word reflection.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- research and plan for the realisation of a short media production.
- identify, articulate or develop screen ideas and contribute to conveying them effectively in a short media production.
- apply practical, technical, creative and theoretical skills in screen production through execution of a role such as producing, directing, development, production management, first assistant directing, cinematography, production design, sound design or editing.
- collaborate effectively in the realisation of a short fiction film and work to production deadlines.

- synthesize and evaluate theoretical concepts in screen media to reflect on one's own and others' work in screen media.

Quizzes

Assessment Type ¹: Quiz/Test

Indicative Time on Task ²: 16 hours

Due: ongoing weekly in weeks 4, 5, 6, & 7, Sundays 11:55pm

Weighting: 15%

Multiple choice quizzes designed to consolidate learning from readings, lectures and equipment demonstrations (live, on video or through handouts). These quizzes support student knowledge acquisition and skills development in media practice and production.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- research and plan for the realisation of a short media production.
- synthesize and evaluate theoretical concepts in screen media to reflect on one's own and others' work in screen media.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Enrolling in MMCC2013 as an 'online only' student

If you are overseas or have a real health risk and cannot come to campus. enrol in the Monday 4pm practical (1/03 or 2/03). The Monday 4pm practical is for ONLINE ONLY students and will not involve working in a film crew with others or using MQ gear. If you are an 'online only' student you do not need to enrol in a workshop - your workshops will be delivered via asynchronous online materials.

'Online only' enrollment is NOT for students who simply think it will be more convenient or less work (it won't be!).
