Unit description
Digital developments and emerging technologies present the law with a myriad of different challenges. This unit analyses the legal issues raised by networked digital technologies. Topics covered include establishing the country which has jurisdiction to hear a multinational internet dispute, the nature of copyright, patent and trademark protection for technological innovations, the governance of domain names, the protection of digital privacy, internet content control, social media governance, cybercrime and cyber security law. In each case, existing legal frameworks, scholarly discourse and evolving law reform debates are analysed and critiqued in detail.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

> ULO1: Explain the fundamental principles of technology and e-commerce law and critique specific legal principles relevant to e-commerce
> ULO2: identify legal issues relevant to e-commerce law and provide legal advice on e-commerce problems or disputes, including an accurate assessment of the likely outcome.
> ULO3: Analyse policy debates and law reform discourse in key areas involving the development of laws to new and emerging technologies and propose law reforms where appropriate.

General Assessment Information

Research Assignment

Due date: 8 April 2022, 5pm

Weighting: 50%

2022 Research Assignment Question

For Question and Submission Portal - See iLearn site under 'Assessment'

Independent legal research: Please note that responding to this assignment question will require independent legal research that goes beyond the prescribed materials provided in lectures, tutorials and readings.

Word limit = 2,000 words, not including footnotes and bibliography. Footnotes need to be confined to citations. Citations should be in compliance with the Australian Guide to Legal Citation.

Submission method: All papers have to be submitted via Turnitin on the LAWS8068 ilearn. Please ensure that you are wholly happy with your paper before submitting. The system does not allow for automatic re-submission.

Marking Rubric for Research Assignment: Please see LAWS8068 ilearn page.

Moderation: The markers and convenor have a series of meeting to moderate the papers. The markers and convenor then undertake a process of blind marking of 10% of papers to establish an accurate and equitable marking standard. All Fail papers are double marked by the convenor.

Late Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – ten (10) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Other relevant information

Please note that plagiarism detection software is used in this unit.
