Unit description
This unit explores the rights and duties of individual employers and employees. It begins by examining the common law doctrines and then expands to consider the legislative framework. Current employment law issues and their significance are also examined.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Describe and evaluate the key concepts of the law governing the labour market.
ULO2: Describe and evaluate the evolution of the constitutional framework of labour law.
ULO3: Evaluate the impact of theoretical modes of thinking in the field of labour law.
ULO4: Describe and evaluate the role of wage labour in a market economy.

General Assessment Information

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of ‘0’ (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue. This late penalty will apply to written reports and recordings only. Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs will be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application.
