Unit description
This unit is a graduate seminar that provides training for student proficiency in critical thinking and research design. The course content utilises inter-disciplinary approaches and methods for the social sciences. Students will practice advanced reading and writing skills, examine the logic of inquiry, investigate methodologies and theoretical approaches, and evaluate diverse sources. Students will apply their advanced research skills through critical thinking and problem-solving. Students will be assessed based on their application of skills to practice, both in formulating research design and presenting their research for broader consumption.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Evaluate the theoretical approaches that frame the field of Security Studies and Criminology, including the relationship to their historical context.

ULO2: Demonstrate critical thinking skills through the understanding and questioning of key concepts, issues and debates.

ULO3: Demonstrate understanding of both the assumptions that underpin key theories, and the methods used for research and investigation.

ULO4: Demonstrate critical communication skills, including the ability to present sustained, persuasive and original verbal and written arguments cogently and coherently, and mediate in-class debate and discussion.

ULO5: Engage consistently with the unit through proactive communication with peers and the convener, and demonstrate professional conduct in all class activities and in the submission of assessments.

Active Engagement

Assessment Type: Participatory task

Indicative Time on Task: 15 hours

Due: Weekly

Weighting: 15%

Students will be required to demonstrate active and critical engagement with course materials. This includes showing a detailed knowledge and understanding of weekly readings and a critical awareness of, and response to, issues raised in the weekly lecture. This will be demonstrated by responding to the weekly questions posted on the online forum as well as engage in forum discussion.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Evaluate the theoretical approaches that frame the field of Security Studies and Criminology, including the relationship to their historical context.
• Engage consistently with the unit through proactive communication with peers and the convener, and demonstrate professional conduct in all class activities and in the submission of assessments.

Quiz
Assessment Type 1: Quiz/Test
Indicative Time on Task 2: 10 hours
Due: Weeks 4 and 9
Weighting: 30%

Quizzes (2) will periodically test understanding and application of key concepts and frameworks from the course.

On successful completion you will be able to:
• Evaluate the theoretical approaches that frame the field of Security Studies and Criminology, including the relationship to their historical context.
• Demonstrate critical thinking skills through the understanding and questioning of key concepts, issues and debates.
• Demonstrate understanding of both the assumptions that underpin key theories, and the methods used for research and investigation.
• Demonstrate critical communication skills, including the ability to present sustained, persuasive and original verbal and written arguments cogently and coherently, and mediate in-class debate and discussion.

Pitch
Assessment Type 1: Presentation
Indicative Time on Task 2: 15 hours
Due: Week 7
Weighting: 20%

A critical skill required of all graduates is the demonstrated ability to present one’s own research. Students are therefore required to present their research design in 3 minutes in a manner that conveys their argument and significance of their research to a nonspecialist audience. Students should consider the presentation as a type of "pitch" for their research.
On successful completion you will be able to:

• Demonstrate critical thinking skills through the understanding and questioning of key concepts, issues and debates.
• Demonstrate critical communication skills, including the ability to present sustained, persuasive and original verbal and written arguments cogently and coherently, and mediate in-class debate and discussion.

Research Design

Assessment Type 1: Essay
Indicative Time on Task 2: 36 hours
Due: Week 12
Weighting: 35%

Following the pitch presentation assessment and feedback, students will expand their research idea into a workable proposal. The proposal includes the revised research question (what is the focus of your study?), Introduction and Background (significance?), Brief Literature Review, Selected Methodology (how you propose to conduct your study and limitations of selected method), and ethical considerations. Each task during the semester is designed to help construct the components of this final assessment.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Evaluate the theoretical approaches that frame the field of Security Studies and Criminology, including the relationship to their historical context.
• Demonstrate critical thinking skills through the understanding and questioning of key concepts, issues and debates.
• Demonstrate understanding of both the assumptions that underpin key theories, and the methods used for research and investigation.
• Demonstrate critical communication skills, including the ability to present sustained, persuasive and original verbal and written arguments cogently and coherently, and mediate in-class debate and discussion.

1 If you need help with your assignment, please contact:

• the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
• the Writing Centre for academic skills support.
Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation.

Delivery and Resources

UNIT REQUIREMENTS AND EXPECTATIONS

- You should spend an average of 12 hours per week on this unit. This includes watching recorded lectures, reading weekly required materials as detailed in iLearn, participating in iLearn discussion forums and preparing assessments.
- Students are expected to make significant contributions to online course activities.
- In most cases students are required to attempt and submit all major assessment tasks in order to pass the unit.

REQUIRED READINGS

- The citations for all the required readings for this unit are available to enrolled students through the unit iLearn site, and at Macquarie University's library site. Electronic copies of required readings may be accessed through the library or will be made available by other means. A helpful guide including shortcuts for accessing journal articles remotely is available at: https://www.mq.edu.au/about/facilities/library/covid-19-response/journal-survival-guide

TECHNOLOGY USED AND REQUIRED

- Computer and internet access are essential for this unit. Basic computer skills and skills in word processing are also a requirement.
- The course website is available on iLearn. Login at: https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/
- Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.
- Information about IT used at Macquarie University is available at http://students.mq.edu.au/it_services/

SUBMITTING ASSESSMENT TASKS

- All text-based assessment tasks are to be submitted, marked and returned electronically. This will only happen through the unit iLearn site.
- Assessment tasks must be submitted as a MS word document by the due date. Assessment due dates in this guide are indicative only and may be adjusted by course convenor.

- Most assessment tasks will be subject to a 'TurnitIn' review as an automatic part of the submission process.
- The granting of extensions is subject to the university’s Special Consideration Policy. Extensions will not be granted by unit conveners or tutors, but must be lodged through Special Consideration: https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration

LATE SUBMISSION OF ASSESSMENT TASKS

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – 10 marks out of 100 credit will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted seven days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments - e.g. quizzes, online tests.

WORD LIMITS FOR ASSESSMENT TASKS

- Stated word limits include footnotes and footnoted references, but not the reference list, or title page.
- Word limits can generally deviate by 10% either over or under the stated figure.
- If the number of words exceeds the limit by more than 10%, then penalties will apply. These penalties are 5% of the awarded mark for every 100 words over the word limit. If a paper is 300 words over, for instance, it will lose 3 x 5% = 15% of the total mark awarded for the assignment. This percentage is taken off the total mark, i.e. if a paper was graded at a credit (65%) and was 300 words over, it would be reduced by 15 marks to a pass (50%).
- The application of this penalty is at the discretion of the course convener.

REASSESSMENT OF ASSIGNMENTS DURING THE SEMESTER

- Macquarie University operates a Grade Appeal Policy in cases where students feel their work was graded inappropriately: http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/gradeappeal/policy.html
- In accordance with the Grade Appeal Policy, individual works are not subject to regrading.
STAFF AVAILABILITY

- Department staff will endeavour to answer student enquiries in a timely manner (usually 2 business days). Work email is not monitored outside regular work hours, over the weekend, or public holiday period.
- Students are encouraged to read the Unit Guide and look at instructions posted on the iLearn site before sending email requests to staff.
