Unit description

This unit is a broad introduction to the performing arts and entertainment industries across local, national and international contexts. It provides an overview of the subsidised and commercial arts sectors, and contributions the arts and performing arts make in social, cultural, and economic contexts. It covers a wide range of forms within the performing arts and entertainment industries. No prior experience of the field is required.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: identify a variety of performing arts and entertainment industry sectors within an Australian and international context.

ULO2: evaluate and analyse performing arts practices in relation to wider social, cultural and artistic contexts.

ULO3: communicate and apply skills in a range of contexts.

ULO4: demonstrate skills of academic writing, analysis, description, communication, conceptualisation and reflection.

General Assessment Information

Report - Individual engagement with course content will be demonstrated through a written report. A written report of 1000 words (excluding references) based on engagement with course content will be submitted via Turnitin Week 8 Sunday 1 May 5pm. Feedback will be provided in class, and grades and feedback through Turnitin. Refer to iLearn for further information.

Presentation - Students will demonstrate their knowledge and skills of a particular aspect of the performing arts or entertainment sector that reflects their interest through a group presentation with an individual presentation component. Refer to iLearn for further information. This assessment will take the form of a presentation around the theme of Festival Curation where students will research and curate a program in a hypothetical performing arts and entertainment festival. The presentation will be based on the student's learning from unit lectures, tutorials, and their own interests and research. The presentation will be presented in video format to be submitted by Week 11 Thurs 19 May 5pm. Grades and feedback will be given through Turnitin. Refer to iLearn for more information.

Information on how to submit your assignment and access results and feedback from assignments using My Submissions in iLearn is available at http://mq.edu.au/iLearn/student_info/assignments.htm

Referencing Style: The referencing style for all written material where academic protocols are required must follow APA 6th. See <https://libguides.mq.edu.au/Referencing>

Late Submissions / Special Consideration:

Please note that the University and the Faculty of Arts have launched a new assessment policy effective as of 1 July 2021. This new policy particularly affects LATE SUBMISSION OF ASSESSMENTS. The Faculty policy in relation to late assessment submissions is as follows:

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – 10 marks out of 100 credit will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted seven days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests, etc. To be very clear: ·

Unless you have applied for special consideration and had your application approved, for each day your assignment is late, 10 marks will be deducted. For example, if you submit your assignment 7 days late, 70 marks will be deducted, which means you will fail that assignment. · If your assignment is more than 7 days late (including weekends), you will get 0 marks for your assignment.

These are serious penalties that will substantially alter your final grade and even determine whether you pass or fail this unit. Please make every effort to submit your assignment by the due date.

If you find you cannot submit your assignment on time, please apply for Special Consideration through AskMQ. Make sure you read Macquarie University's policy regarding Special Consideration requests before you apply: <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/assessment-exams/special-consideration>
