Unit description

This unit introduces students of ancient history to study of the Ancient Hebrew language. It provides a systematic introduction to the script, grammar (especially morphology and basic syntax, and vocabulary). The unit also aims to help students develop the skills necessary for reading original Ancient Hebrew texts, and explores the significance of Ancient Hebrew for the study of relevant ancient cultures.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Recognise and recall ancient Hebrew script and phonetic structure

ULO2: Learn Hebrew vocabulary and grammatical structures at elementary level

ULO3: Recognise and memorise foundational Hebrew vocabulary

ULO4: Assess the grammar required for the translation of simple Hebrew texts

ULO5: Integrate knowledge of grammar and vocabulary in reading and/or writing simple Hebrew texts

ULO6: Recognize and recall linguistic technical terms

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty: Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue. This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.
