Unit description

This unit is offered on a pass/fail basis. It is designed for students interested in the cultures and languages offered in the Department of International Studies who wish to study at a partner university. A program of study at the overseas university must be worked out in advance in consultation with the Department of International Studies, and approved by the Head of the Department of International Studies. Students will need to complete additional assessment at Macquarie University on their return from overseas. Students planning to take this option should discuss their plans as early as possible with the unit's staff contact.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: express nuanced understandings of how language and culture interact, and evidence ability to apply language to solving real-world tasks.

ULO3: increase their ability to clearly express, detail, defend, and/or promote ideas in public situations, through their native language and/or target language

ULO2: show awareness of differences and similarities between language use in their native language or culture and the target language or culture, as well as thoughtful understandings of how to negotiate difficulties that arise during cross-cultural and/or cross-linguistic interactions

ULO4: skilfully interact and/or work with others to accomplish complex tasks, identify the dynamics present within diverse groups and use intercultural knowledge to strategically engage with other actors to enhance communities.

General Assessment Information

Please note that the University and the Faculty of Arts have launched a new assessment policy effective as of 1 July 2021. This new policy particularly affects LATE SUBMISSION OF ASSESSMENTS.

The Faculty policy in relation to late assessment submissions is as follows:

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – 10 marks out of 100 credit will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted seven days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests, etc.

To be very clear:

- Unless you have applied for special consideration and had your application approved, for each day your assignment is late, 10 marks will be deducted. For example, if you submit your assignment 7 days late, 70 marks will be deducted, which means you will fail that assignment.
- If your assignment is more than 7 days late (including weekends), you will get 0 marks for your assignment.

These are serious penalties that will substantially alter your final grade and even determine whether you pass or fail this unit. Please make every effort to submit your assignment by the due date.

If you find you cannot submit your assignment on time, please apply for Special Consideration through AskMQ. Make sure you read Macquarie University's policy regarding Special

Consideration requests before you apply: <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/assessment-exams/special-consideration>

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Online intensive immersive course	60%	No	Ongoing, finalised by 17:00 on 5/06/2022
Critical reflection	40%	No	Ongoing, finalised by 17:00 on 5/06/2022

Online intensive immersive course

Assessment Type ¹: Participatory task

Indicative Time on Task ²: 70 hours

Due: Ongoing, finalised by 17:00 on 5/06/2022

Weighting: 60%

Students are required to satisfactorily complete the components of their approved program of study. The backup supplementary task for this assessment task must be an equivalent program or experience, arranged by the student with the host institution.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- express nuanced understandings of how language and culture interact, and evidence ability to apply language to solving real-world tasks.
- increase their ability to clearly express, detail, defend, and/or promote ideas in public situations, through their native language and/or target language
- show awareness of differences and similarities between language use in their native language or culture and the target language or culture, as well as thoughtful understandings of how to negotiate difficulties that arise during cross-cultural and/or cross-linguistic interactions
- skilfully interact and/or work with others to accomplish complex tasks, identify the dynamics present within diverse groups and use intercultural knowledge to strategically engage with other actors to enhance communities.

Critical reflection

Assessment Type ¹: Media presentation

Indicative Time on Task ²: 10 hours

Due: Ongoing, finalised by 17:00 on 5/06/2022

Weighting: 40%

Students will produce a video wherein they discuss and reflect upon their experiences during the placement. The video should touch on an issue relating to what the student has learned, how they overcame challenges, how the experience related to their overall program of study, and the ways in which they will employ what they learned in the future study and/or community engagement. Additionally, students should discuss their preparation for the experience, and how this impacted their time during the project. The backup supplementary task for this assessment task is a project diary discussing the experience.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- express nuanced understandings of how language and culture interact, and evidence ability to apply language to solving real-world tasks.
- increase their ability to clearly express, detail, defend, and/or promote ideas in public situations, through their native language and/or target language
- show awareness of differences and similarities between language use in their native language or culture and the target language or culture, as well as thoughtful understandings of how to negotiate difficulties that arise during cross-cultural and/or cross-linguistic interactions
- skilfully interact and/or work with others to accomplish complex tasks, identify the dynamics present within diverse groups and use intercultural knowledge to strategically engage with other actors to enhance communities.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation
