Unit description
This unit explores a variety of approaches to the study of second and foreign language acquisition in both instructed and naturalistic settings. The unit focuses on the range of factors that influence the learning/acquisition of a second language, as well as ways of studying the characteristics of learner language. Throughout the unit, participants are encouraged to reflect on the relevance of second language acquisition research to their own experiences as both language learners and professionals working in educational contexts or other language-related areas.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Identify and explain current issues and research trends in the field of second language acquisition (SLA)
ULO2: Demonstrate in-depth familiarity with and the ability to critically evaluate three areas of SLA research
ULO3: Communicate knowledge of SLA research to a professional audience
ULO4: Demonstrate an understanding of the range of internal and external factors that influence an individual’s learning of a second language
ULO5: Apply knowledge of SLA research to personally relevant educational contexts

General Assessment Information

1. All assessment due dates and times refer to local time in Sydney, Australia
2. Full instructions for each assignment, together with marking criteria and instructions for submission, will be available on iLearn
3. Extensions for assignments can be sought by applying for special consideration via ask.mq.edu.au - please advise the unit convenor as well if you have submitted a request for special consideration
4. Assignments submitted late without an extension may be penalised at 5% of the total marks available for the assignment per day late

Due: Friday 03/06/2022 at 23.59 PM
Weighting: 50%

For this assessment task, students will collect a small amount of data from a language learner and write up the findings in the form of a small-scale research report.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify and explain current issues and research trends in the field of second language acquisition (SLA)
- Demonstrate in-depth familiarity with and the ability to critically evaluate three areas of SLA research
- Communicate knowledge of SLA research to a professional audience
- Apply knowledge of SLA research to personally relevant educational contexts

1. If you need help with your assignment, please contact:
   - the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
   - the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

2. Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation.

Delivery and Resources

APPL8250 will be available both externally (online) and internally (on campus). A weekly on-campus lecture-seminar will be held on Wednesdays from 11 AM - 1 PM - please see the timetable for room details. These sessions will be live-streamed on Zoom, and will also be recorded for all students to access during the semester.

The iLearn site for APPL8250 contains details of assessment tasks, weekly readings, discussion forums, lecture slides and additional resources.
