Unit description
This unit applies the tools of microeconomic theory to the study of firm behaviour in imperfectly competitive markets. The unit begins with a review of neoclassical theory of the firm. This is followed by a review of monopoly behaviour, with extension to models of horizontal and vertical product differentiation. Oligopoly models (including Cournot, Stackelberg and Bertrand) are reviewed and developed beyond those learned in foundation units. Models of anti-competitive behaviour are then introduced as they relate to predatory behaviour and collusion. Finally, non-price models of competition related to advertising, R&D, and patent races are examined. Beyond the theoretical topics studied in the unit, students will have the opportunity to apply their knowledge to a current industry study of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

UL01: Effectively communicate theories and knowledge of industrial organisation in technical and non-technical language.
UL02: Analyse the relevance of industrial organisation to economic life.

UL03: Evaluate real-world applications of economic theory relevant to efficiency and equity considerations, from a broad ethical perspective.

General Assessment Information

Late submissions of assessments

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, no extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available assessment-task marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24-hour period or part thereof that the submission is late. Late submissions will only be accepted up to 96 hours after the due date and time.

No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g., quizzes, online tests.

Table 1: Penalty calculation based on submission time

Special Consideration

To request an extension on the due date/time for a timed or non-timed assessment task, you must submit a Special Consideration application. An application for Special Consideration does not guarantee approval.

The approved extension date for a student becomes the new due date for that student. The late submission penalties above then apply as of the new due date.
